Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

Reflection by Rev. Peterson

The greater the dislike of a person, the stronger the motivation to defeat him or at least thwart his forward progress. The collaboration of the Pharisees and Herodians, who represent opposite political views, reveals the extreme measures they take to eliminate Jesus.

Their chosen strategy was to trap Him. The Pharisees were Jewish nationalists opposed to Rome's occupation and rule over Palestine. The Herodians were supporters of Roman rule and sympathetic to the Herodian dynasty. If Jesus opposed the tax, the Herodians could charge Him with treason for instigating a tax revolt against Rome. If Jesus approved of it, the Pharisees would charge Him with being unfaithful to Judaism and its hopes of national independence.

Jesus beautifully evades the intended trap with a subtle and riddle-like response. His words have several implications. He plays on the word "likeness." Caesar's coins could be given back to him in taxes without religious compromise. He minted the coins with his own image, and they were therefore his property. But even Caesar, created in God's "image," has the duty of giving himself back to God.

Jesus' answer turns the trap back on them. He hints that taxation is the result of their own sins. Had Israel been giving God His due, they would not have been subjected to the oppression of Roman rule.

So, in the end, Our Lord affirms the rightness of fulfilling one's civil duties while emphasizing one's primary duty of serving God. Matthew compliments the Master in his conclusion to the whole incident: "When they heard it (the rendering to Caesar and to God), they marveled, and they left him and went away."

"They marveled." The question arises: Do we marvel at Jesus? Or have we slid into another kind of trap, namely that of complacency?

This Mission Sunday is a call to wake up to our obligation as followers of Jesus to spread the word about Him to a waiting world that doesn't even recognize its need of Him and His wisdom. We do it in many ways, the most common of which is our lifestyle.

Inherent in our duty is the obligation to help those valiant men and women who have given their lives for the effort through our prayerful and material support. There are millions still who have not heard the Jesus story. They need to marvel at what they hear. We reach out to them with optimism.

Once upon a time, a shoe salesman, upon finding out that in his new territory no one wore shoes, wrote his company and said, "Don't send any shoes, because no one here wears them." Another salesman in the same territory wrote the company and said, "Send all the shoes you've got; nobody here has any."

God love you and bless your mission.

Stewardship Priority

“Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s. - Matthew 22:21

Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren’t “owners” of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second, especially our money.

A Spirituality for Our Times: That All May Be One

The Sisters of Saint Joseph live and work so that all people may be united with God and with one another. They follow a spiritual path (a spirituality) that has guided them since 1650 in bringing the dream of Jesus, that all may be one (John 17:21), to greater fullness. This mission is as much needed today as it was in 1650. Their spiritual path, so rooted in the Gospel, continues to guide not only the Sisters, but also their Associates in Mission. Associates in Mission are women and men who share the same desire to deepen relationship with God, with one another and all people without distinction.

Associates live the mission in the ordinary circumstances of their lives, transforming lives and our culture one relationship at a time. Currently, there are over 400 lay women and men affiliated with the Philadelphia Sisters of Saint Joseph. They can be found in NJ, PA, DE, GA, NC and scattered throughout other states. Are you interested in learning what inspires today's lay women and men to live as Associates in Mission? Do you desire to be with others in deepening your relationship with God and living in ways that are unifying? Then, come find out more!

The Sisters at Christ Our Light invite you to an information session on Saturday, November 14 from 10 to 11:30 AM in the Parish Center (St. Mary Room). If possible, let us know you are coming. Just contact any Sister of Saint Joseph or send an email to Sister Dolores Clerico at dclerico@gmail.com. All are welcome!

TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

Reading 1

Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, subduing nations before him, and making kings run in his service, opening doors before him and leaving the gates unbarred: For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not. I am the LORD and there is no other, there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you know me not, so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none beside me. I am the LORD; there is no other.

Responsorial Psalm: Give the Lord glory and honor. Psalm 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10

Reading 2

1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

Gospel

Matthew 22:15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
