Sunday November 15, 2020

Saint Teresa of Calcutta is celebrating the World Day of the Poor

“I am a little pencil in the hand of a writing God who is sending a love letter to the world.”

(Saint Teresa of Calcutta)

Sunday, November 15 is World Day of the Poor. What can we do as a parish? This is not something that needs a joyful celebration; however, we can faithfully and spiritually join with the Pope to acknowledge that day.

Jesus said: “The poor you will always have with you; but you will not always have me” (Matthew 26:11). A gesture of gratitude for everything that the Lord has done for each one of us is a sign that helps us to perform an act of worship acceptable to the Lord. Of course, we draw more blessings upon us by being generous and kind to the less fortunate. Pope Francis made a very true statement: “The Lord’s blessing descends upon us and prayer attains its goal when accompanied by service to the poor.”

For this, Brothers and Sisters, from wherever you are, I am asking you to help us to make this date a great day. How? I invite you to share whatever you can to support the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul in our parish, whose mission is to help those who are hurting financially.

If your heart desires to support this great day, you can pick up an envelope either from the parish office or the back of our churches to share your donation. This is a specific way to show your love for your neighbor. Please write a short prayer note on the envelope as a sign of your kindness to one person who will go hungry in the world or our diocese. I thank you for being a blessing for the world and for those who will go without today or tomorrow. Please join our parish in being that “little pencil in the hand of a writing God who is sending a love letter to the world”.

May you and your family be blessed.

Fr. Yvans Jazon
Pastor

NOVEMBER 15, 2020: GENEROUS STEWARDS

"Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you have been faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities."- MATTHEW 25:21

God calls us, through Stewardship, to nurture and develop the gifts He has given us and then generously return a portion with increase. He doesn't want us to waste or hoard the gifts He has given us. He expects us to grow our gifts, use them wisely and be generous with them. Unfortunately, many of us are not generous in proportion to all that God has given us.

2020-2021 HOUSE OF CHARITY : EMPLOYMENT GIVING CAMPAIGN

Employee Giving/United Way campaigns, which began in September, give us an opportunity to direct our donations to the charities that best represent our beliefs, interests and social concerns.

Ask your employer for a pledge card and be sure to: In the Donor Section designate the "House of Charity". Do not include the parish name on the form. Be sure to ask to be acknowledged so our parish will receive credit toward our House of Charity goal. Codes, if requested by the agency, may be found on the House of Charity website under "Employee Giving Campaign" and in the Catholic Star Herald. Information is also posted in the back of both churches.

Your donation to our House of Charity helps build, support and maintain many programs, ministries and services throughout our parishes and communities. Thank you so much for your past, present, and future support !

Thank you, once again, for your generosity!

Parish /Diocesan Spiritual Ministries

Intercessory Prayer Ministry

This is a group of people who devote specific time to pray for the needs of others in the parish. As part of the Intercessory Prayer group, each of our parish ministries will be assigned a week and create an intention for a specific need of our parish.

In order to give structure to this hour, these are the areas that we will concentrate on praying for: Church leadership, the world, our parish ministries, parish missions, parish pastoral planning, and parish spiritual events.

During the year, each ministry will be assigned a week to participate in the Intercessory Prayer devotion along with the Intercessory Prayer Ministry and the entire parish as follows:

- Each member of the ministry is asked to spend an hour in prayer during the week for those intentions.
- If possible, the hour of prayer should be spent with the Blessed Sacrament which is exposed Monday through Friday for an hour after the conclusion of the 9:00am mass (from approximately 9:30 until 10:30).

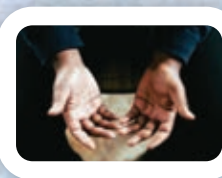

If they are unable to attend in person, the members of the ministry are asked to spend an hour in prayer for the intentions sometime during that ministry's week. Choose a place and time that works for you. The exposition will be streamed on Facebook Live if this is convenient for any of the members of your ministry.

Parish Prayer Intention for the Week of November 15-21

Compelled to live as Jesus encourages us in the Gospel of Matthew 25, "As often as you did it for one of my least ones, you did it for me," We pray for all those whose lives are oppressed by poverty, hunger, homelessness, unemployment, racism, and all types of injustice. We pray for good health and strength for all those suffering from the corona virus, their families and medical staff. May God grant us the courage and compassion to continue to serve those in need in our parish community and neighborhoods as far as we are able in these difficult times.

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

*I want a laity, ... who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it. I want an intelligent, well-instructed laity — I wish you to enlarge your knowledge, to cultivate your reason, to get an insight into the relation of truth to truth, to learn to view things as they are, to understand how faith and reason stand to each other, what are the bases and principles of Catholicism...Cardinal John Henry Newman

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process of welcoming people who want to be full members of the Catholic faith community. This includes those who have never been baptized, those baptized in other Christian denominations, and baptized Catholics who have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. RCIA is not a “class” but rather a journey of faith. In the company of a group of faith-filled parishioners who serve as the RCIA team and with other people inquiring about the Church, and through experiences of prayer, faith-sharing, instruction, and discussion, you will have the opportunity to grow in your relationship with God as you discover how your faith could be nurtured with the Catholic tradition. If you would like to learn more about RCIA please call Father Yvans.

Faith Formation Update.

We are excited to begin our Faith Formation Sessions and look forward to a wonderful year of growth in our faith.

We have in person sessions on Sunday mornings from 9:30-10:30 and Tuesday afternoons from 3:30-4:30. We have strict class size rules due to our social distancing requirements, but there are a few classes still with seats available.

We also offer Remote sessions for grades K-7 which involve meeting with the catechist for a zoom class each week and then finishing the chapter at home.

Our Confirmation Prep classes are a mixture of in person sessions in St. John Church and Zoom classes.

Please call the parish office if you would like to register your child for Faith Formation.

Schedule

Sunday 9:30-10:30 AM, Grades K-7
November 1, 8, 15, 22
Tuesday 3:30-4:30 PM, Grades K-7
November 3, 10, 17, 24

All Remote sessions will take place at their designated time during these weeks.

Our First Holy Communicants

During the past few months, we've been privileged to celebrate First Holy Communion with our parish children. We celebrated the Sacrament at designated masses June through October. Please congratulate and pray for these children as they are now one with us at the Table of the Lord.

GLORIA

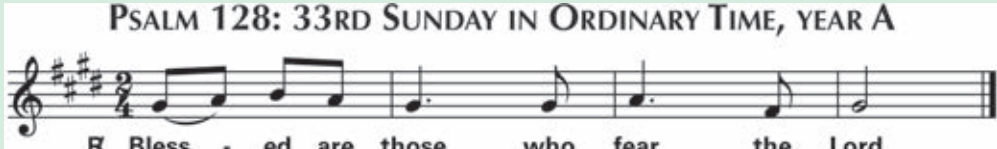

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you; we bless you; we adore you; we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: PRV 31: 10-13, 19-20, 30-31

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls. Her husband, entrusting his heart to her, has an unfailing prize. She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life. She obtains wool and flax and works with loving hands. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her fingers ply the spindle. She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy. Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Give her a reward for her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 128: 33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

R. Bless - ed are those who fear the Lord.

Text © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL. All rights reserved. Used with permission.
Music: Owen Alstott, © 1977, 1990, OCP. All rights reserved.

SECOND READING: 1 THES 5:1-6

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night. When people are saying, "Peace and security," then sudden disaster comes upon them, like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief. For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: ALLELUIA NO. VI

R. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Music: Owen Alstott, © 1977, 1990, OCP. All rights reserved.

GOSPEL: MT. 25: 14-30

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one--to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.

"After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.' His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'"

Creed:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
