

SAINT TERESA OF CALCUTTA MISSION STATEMENT

We are the welcoming community of Saint Teresa of Calcutta living our faith by endeavoring to follow her example to see, share and be the light of Christ's love and compassion.

Second Sunday of Ordinary Time: January 17, 2021

Parish Information: January 17, 2021

Welcome to Saint Teresa of Calcutta Parish!

We are pleased to have you share in this celebration of the Eucharist. If you do not have a parish home we invite you to become part of our parish family and become fully involved in our life of prayer, education, service and community.

Registration: We invite all parishioners to register with the Parish. Registration helps us to serve you when issuing letters in connection with sponsorship of Baptism, Confirmation or Matrimony, and for letters of reference. Kindly notify the office if your address changes.

Anointing of the Sick: In case of serious illness or advanced age please call the parish office. For hospital cases, contact the hospital Chaplain.

Pastoral Care: Please call the parish office to have Communion brought to an ill or homebound family member.

Marriage: Couples contemplating marriage in the parish must contact the parish office to meet with a priest to begin the marriage preparation process. This is the first step in planning their wedding and needs to be done one year before the date of the wedding.

Baptisms: Celebrated second and fourth Sundays of the month at 12:30PM in St. John's Church. Contact the Parish Office at least two weeks before the desired date of Baptism to make arrangements. Parents are required to attend a preparation class before the Baptism. Classes will be held via Zoom at 7PM until further notice. Please call the office to register.

Parish Office Closed

The Parish Office will be closed on Monday, January 18 in observance of the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Let us pray for Peace and Unity!

This past Monday Night we had a prayer service that was organized by the Life and Justice committee and was well attended by the parishioners. We also had a good number of people who participated on Facebook and YouTube. It was a great experience for the parish and for all of us Catholic Christians. What we have been experiencing lately in the news is not looking good. This is not what we would like to teach our children, and this is not the example that we want to live for them. Therefore, we all wanted to intercede to God to pray for peace in our country and in the world. I want to thank everyone who participated to make that night possible. Many people commented about the liturgy, and I want to thank you all for being part of this beautiful moment.

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks his followers a particularly important question: "What are you looking for?" He wanted to know their motivation and intensify their commitments to follow him. Instead of answering the question, they asked another question: "Rabbi where are you staying?" Aristotle, a great philosopher, once stated: "Those who wish to succeed must ask the right preliminary questions" (Metaphysics). To follow Jesus demands a clear vision and direction of where we want to go with him or where we want to allow him to go with us. When we let him be part of our lives, we know he is walking with us. Even in this unprecedented time he is there with us. Never doubt his presence in our lives.

We are living in a world that is so lost and so many souls are wandering. Many are looking for the exact meaning of their lives and end up searching for him in the wrong place. As a result, they suffer greatly and cause others around them to suffer. Even though we are living in a difficult world, we cannot forget who we are, children of God. We need not stop directing people to Jesus as John the Baptist did by telling them: "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world". Like Andrew, we have the duty to bring our brothers and sisters to Jesus so they can find the true meaning of life and the right answers for their questions, whether they be political, spiritual, or social because when they found Jesus, they found it all.

As we start a new season of Ordinary Time, let us continue to pray for our country and for the world to come together as one. Let us pray that many will choose to follow Jesus instead of following man or political views that can divide or push us away from being who we are as brothers and sisters who were created to love one another rather than hate each other. Let us pray for blessings upon this new government, so the Lord will guide them to bring the country together as one. May the dream of the Lord come true in our lives so we all may be one as Jesus, the Father and the Holy Spirit are one.

God bless you all, Happy Sunday, and remember: God is Good..... All the time!

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?'" - JOHN 1:38

What are you looking for? Are you wasting your time looking for the material comforts of the world? Or, is your heart longing for something deeper that can only be found by spending time with God? Take time, each day, to live your Stewardship, by asking the Lord what it is that He wants you to do.

Parish Spiritual Ministries

Missionary Disciples Ministry

Fellow Parishioners,

In these challenging times the Missionary Disciple Ministry is creating a program for personal and spiritual development. This will be an opportunity for outreach; it will enable fellow parishioners to connect, to pray, to learn and to share.

We envision small groups of parishioners initially connecting via Zoom to discuss scripture, to pray, and to share their faith to the extent that they are comfortable. Having this opportunity to interact with others in our community in these uncertain times will help us to learn more about our relationship with God.

If you are interested please contact us with your information via email at petedunn@financialguide.com or call us directly (Fran Boyer 856-816-2294/ Pete Dunn 856-397-1139). We look forward to hearing from you.

Stay safe!

Parish Spiritual Ministries

Intercessory Prayer Ministry

This is a group of people who devote specific time to pray for the needs of others in the parish. As part of the Intercessory Prayer group, each of our parish ministries will be assigned a week and create an intention for a specific need of our parish.

Parish Prayer Intention for the Week of January 17-23

Jan. 17—23: As we kneel before the Blessed Sacrament in adoration, may our prayers be a source of strength for those who have chosen “life”. May the daily rosaries recited by our parishioners, both those in person and those at home, bring solace to all in turmoil during these difficult days. May our repetitive “Hail Mary’s” calm the mind and hearts of those we anxiously await to see again.

Rosary, Adoration, Pro Life

Let my prayer be incense before you; my uplifted hands an evening Offering.

A Call for Prayer and Fasting to End Abortion

The Catholic Bishops of New Jersey, ask Catholics and people of good will to join them on Friday January 22, 2021, the 48th anniversary of Roe vs. Wade, in a Day of Prayer and Fasting to end abortion.

As we mark this tragic event in our nation’s history, we remember the millions of lives lost to abortion and pray for those left to suffer the tragic effects.

The Catholic Church is committed to protecting all life from conception to natural death. We will work vigorously to ensure the laws of our state and country protect and defend the intrinsic dignity of all people.

We humbly implore our Blessed Mother under her title of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the Americas and Protectress of the Unborn, to intercede on our behalf that these efforts to end abortion are guided by mercy, compassion, and above all charity.

Year of Saint Joseph

For the 150th anniversary of the church being placed under the patronage of Saint Joseph, we will recite the following prayer after daily and Sunday masses.

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father,
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

One of the primary missions of our St. Vincent DePaul Society is to assist people in times of emergency. We respond to calls for help on our parish number 856-858-1444. Often people are reluctant to ask for help, but should you know of anyone in our community in need of urgent assistance, please refer them to our number and let them know we are there to help.

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

*I want a laity, ... who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it. I want an intelligent, well-instructed laity — I wish you to enlarge your knowledge, to cultivate your reason, to get an insight into the relation of truth to truth, to learn to view things as they are, to understand how faith and reason stand to each other, what are the bases and principles of Catholicism...Cardinal John Henry Newman

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process of welcoming people who want to be full members of the Catholic faith community. This includes those who have never been baptized, those baptized in other Christian denominations, and baptized Catholics who have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. RCIA is not a “class” but rather a journey of faith. In the company of a group of faith-filled parishioners who serve as the RCIA team and with other people inquiring about the Church, and through experiences of prayer, faith-sharing, instruction, and discussion, you will have the opportunity to grow in your relationship with God as you discover how your faith could be nurtured with the Catholic tradition. If you would like to learn more about RCIA please call Father Yvans.

PARENT SACRAMENTAL PREP

Parents of 2nd graders and older children needing
First Reconciliation and First Communion:
Zoom Meetings on January 19 and 20. 7:30PM.

Please note: If you are a parishioner of St. Teresa and your child attends a Catholic school in the area, you are asked to attend these meetings and participate in our parish’s sacramental prep. Sacraments are always celebrated in one’s parish, not one’s school.

Please call the parish office if you need to be put on our email list for Zoom invitations.

In person classes resume on Jan 17 & 19

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson: The Baptism of the Lord

We all are used to carrying proof of our identity around with us. Today’s feast celebrates the fact that at His baptism, Our Lord had no such need, for He received in spectacular fashion His authentication. God the Father said it in five words: “You are my beloved Son.” The fact that Jesus was baptized, and declared God’s Son then and there brings to the fore a pair of religious obligations we all have inherited as a result of our own baptism. First is that we take our baptism very seriously, far from being just a happy memory caught by a collection of posed pictures of us as infants at the font. Second, we must take seriously every facet of Christ’s teaching in making decisions for action practically every day. Most Catholic adults only confront the importance of their baptism when they visit the parish office seeking permission to be a godparent; or arranging a wedding; or setting up the baptism of their own new child.

The significance of this sacrament is the fact that it is the “gatekeeper” for the other six. It begins our full commitment to Christ, albeit made through our godparents, waiting for us to make it on our own. This automatically means that we are called to full participation in the life of the Church He founded, and identified Himself with as its Head.

What are some aspects of our commitment? For one, we may have to decide on any given Sunday, do I go to Mass, or junior’s soccer game? Do I opt for more sleep because I’ve had a hard week at work? Do I attend my daughter’s Confirmation class on Saturday or go instead to a ballet performance? Basic items but real cases. And those are only the beginning. Our baptism gave us our permanent identity and it involves far more than a cleansing from original sin. I leave it up to you to research the whole beautiful treatment of the sacrament given by the Church from her earliest days. Refresh your earlier learning by finding online the beautiful truths presented by the official Church catechism.

Meanwhile, here is rich food for thought from C.S. Lewis, one of the best exponents of the Christian faith: “I believe in Christianity as I believe that the sun has risen. Not only because I see it, but because by it I see everything else.”

Financial Peace University

We thought we were doing okay. We were making what we considered decent money. The monthly bills were paid. We were doing some investing. We had some savings. At the end of some months there was more money; other months, there was more month. Then, a few investments went the wrong way. Money got tighter. Arguments ensued. Fear, frustration, and worry set in. How did we get here and how do we never end up here again?

With the lessons learned in Financial Peace University, we learned how to work as a team, be intentional with our money, and put our financial lives on a solid track. It has improved our marriage, restored our hope, and helped us to dream again. This can be you, too. It's not too late.

Our next 9-week class begins Tuesday night, January 19th, 7pm on Zoom. Sign up at fpu.com/1129123. With the new 14-day free trial, you can attend the first night for free.

Join us for one of our virtual Q&A preview nights: Tuesday, January 12th, Thursday, January 14th, and Sunday, January 17th, 7pm. Please contact Joshua Wiener at 609-502-3539 or joshwiener@verizon.net with questions or more details.

Bus to March for Life, January 29, 2021

Due to the Covid-19 Pandemic, the Knights of Columbus (Santa Maria Council # 1443) will not sponsor the bus to the March for Life in 2021. We appreciate your generosity at our Roses for Life sale in November. Funds will be set aside for the bus for the 2022 March and also to support other Pro-Life organizations.

On Friday, January 22, 2021 please plan to attend the Mass for Life at St. Rose of Lima Church at 8:30AM. You may wish to attend the NJ March for Life Rally at the State House in Trenton at on Friday, January 22, 2021.

The National March for Life will take place in Washington DC on Friday January 29, 2021, as planned. You are welcome to make your own travel arrangements. The March is always telecast on EWTN. Here is the link www.marchforlife.org.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you; we bless you; we adore you; we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: 1 Sam. 3: 3b-10,19

Samuel was sleeping in the temple of the LORD where the ark of God was. The LORD called to Samuel, who answered, "Here I am." Samuel ran to Eli and said, "Here I am. You called me." "I did not call you," Eli said. "Go back to sleep." So he went back to sleep. Again the LORD called Samuel, who rose and went to Eli. "Here I am," he said. "You called me." But Eli answered, "I did not call you, my son. Go back to sleep."

At that time Samuel was not familiar with the LORD, because the LORD had not revealed anything to him as yet. The LORD called Samuel again, for the third time. Getting up and going to Eli, he said, "Here I am. You called me." Then Eli understood that the LORD was calling the youth. So he said to Samuel, "Go to sleep, and if you are called, reply, Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening." When Samuel went to sleep in his place, the LORD came and revealed his presence, calling out as before, "Samuel, Samuel!" Samuel answered, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

Samuel grew up, and the LORD was with him, not permitting any word of his to be without effect.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 40: SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

R. Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.

Music: Owen Alstott, © 1977, 1990, OCP. All rights reserved.

SECOND READING: 1 Cor.6:13c—15a, 17-20

Brothers and sisters: The body is not for immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body; God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? But whoever is joined to the Lord becomes one Spirit with him. Avoid immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the immoral person sins against his own body. Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you have been purchased at a price. Therefore glorify God in your body.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL: John 1: 35-42

John was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he said, “Behold, the Lamb of God.” The two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus. Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, “What are you looking for?” They said to him, “Rabbi” — which translated means Teacher —, “where are you staying?” He said to them, “Come, and you will see.” So they went and saw where Jesus was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about four in the afternoon. Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard John and followed Jesus. He first found his own brother Simon and told him, “We have found the Messiah” — which is translated Christ —. Then he brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, “You are Simon the son of John; you will be called Cephas” — which is translated Peter.

CREED:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man”, all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
