2nd Sunday of Lent: February 28, 2021

This weekend's gospel brings us a story about the illumination of Jesus on a mountaintop in the presence of his closest disciples, Peter, James, and John. Tradition tells us that this mountaintop was Mount Tabor. The "mountain" is a special place in the Bible. This is how some Bible translations attribute the name of God, as God of the Mountain, "El Shaddai".

Many great events happen on the mountain where the Lord speaks to his people such as Abraham who ascends to Mount Moriah to sacrifice his son which in the first reading for this second Sunday of Lent (Genesis 22). Moses met with God and received the Ten Commandments on the Mount Sinai (Exodus 20). Elijah went to the mountain top also known as Horeb to listen to the voice of God (1 Kings 18).

The illumination of Jesus has traditionally been interpreted as a light from heaven to show divine approval of his mission after he has just announced to his disciples that "the Son of Man must suffer greatly" (Mark 8: 31).

During this beautiful experience of the mountaintop, the disciples had received the confirmation of Jesus as the Son of God while the voice of God spoke to them directly saying "this is my beloved Son. Listen to him". These words are directed to each one of us. We must take these words very seriously and consider the implications of such a command from God. This surely must mean that we, too, are expected to "visit the mountain of our own Transfiguration, where we can be "illuminated" as Jesus did, because we love and care for others. We may think that this means nothing but self-denial, but the fact is that those who seek the happiness of others more than their own satisfaction turn out to be the happiest people of all.

This does not mean becoming a doormat or catering to obsessive defendants, but it does mean that we are sensitive to others and truly committed to their welfare. This daily "dying" leads to an ultimate resurrected life. It is also an excellent way to keep the spirit of Lent shining into the world.

May God help each and every one of us to experience our own divine "mountain top", so we may reflect the beauty of Jesus' divine life to those around us in our daily life.

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

*I want a laity, ... who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it. I want an intelligent, well-instructed laity — I wish you to enlarge your knowledge, to cultivate your reason, to get an insight into the relation of truth to truth, to learn to view things as they are, to understand how faith and reason stand to each other, what are the bases and principles of Catholicism...Cardinal John Henry Newman

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process of welcoming people who want to be full members of the Catholic faith community. This includes those who have never been baptized, those baptized in other Christian denominations, and baptized Catholics who have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. RCIA is not a “class” but rather a journey of faith. In the company of a group of faith-filled parishioners who serve as the RCIA team and with other people inquiring about the Church, and through experiences of prayer, faith-sharing, instruction, and discussion, you will have the opportunity to grow in your relationship with God as you discover how your faith could be nurtured with the Catholic tradition. If you would like to learn more about RCIA please call Father Yvans.

Faith Formation Schedule

Sunday 9:30-10:30 (Grades 1-7)
February 28, March 7, 21, 28

Tuesday 3:30-4:30 (Grades 1-7)
March 2, 9, 23, 30

Confirmation Prep
February 28, 7PM

REMOTE CLASSES AS SCHEDULED BY THE CATECHISTS

Confirmation Retreat: March 30

What’s Happening in Faith Formation?

During these months, our 2nd Graders have been working hard preparing for the celebration of First Reconciliation. This past weekend, they attended a First Reconciliation Retreat with their parent. We offered a Remote Version and an In-person session. We prayed and sang and learned about examining our consciences. The overall message we have been trying to convey to the children and their families is the overwhelming mercy of God. Going to Confession is a celebration of God’s love and mercy!

Our 8th graders are preparing to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation. Lately, we have spent time thinking about the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. They participated in a prayer service surrounding the gifts and each chose one gift that they are especially desiring. During our next few sessions, we will concentrate on learning how to participate more fully in the Mass.

Overall, families are trying hard to keep their children engaged in their faith formation classes. Please continue to pray for parents as they juggle so many responsibilities. The fact that they are giving priority to faith formation is good news for all of us!

FIRST READING: Genesis 9: 8-15

God said to Noah and to his sons with him: “See, I am now establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you and with every living creature that was with you: all the birds, and the various tame and wild animals that were with you and came out of the ark. I will establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all bodily creatures be destroyed by the waters of a flood; there shall not be another flood to devastate the earth.” God added: “This is the sign that I am giving for all ages to come, of the covenant between me and you and every living creature with you: I set my bow in the clouds to serve as a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth, and the bow appears in the clouds, I will recall the covenant I have made between me and you and all living beings, so that the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all mortal beings.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 116: SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT, YEAR B

R. I will walk be - fore the Lord, in the land of the liv - ing.

SECOND READING: 1 Peter 3: 18-22

Beloved: Christ suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God. Put to death in the flesh, he was brought to life in the Spirit. In it he also went to preach to the spirits in prison, who had once been disobedient while God patiently waited in the days of Noah during the building of the ark, in which a few persons, eight in all, were saved through water. This prefigured baptism, which saves you now. It is not a removal of dirt from the body but an appeal to God for a clear conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers subject to him.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

LENTEN GOSPEL ACCLAMATION NO. IX-A

Praise to you, Lord Je - sus Christ, King of end - less glo - ry!

GOSPEL: Mark 1: 12-15

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert, and he remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan. He was among wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him. After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: “This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel.”

CREED:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man”, all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
