Dear Parishioners,

I want to express my gratitude to Almighty God that I am part of a wonderful community with such great people. I want to thank all of you for being witnesses of God's love, and for living the gospel message as evident through your commitment to the House of Charity this year. I know this is not the only thing that you do for the parish. You are the heart of the parish, and I am truly inspired by your faith and your generosity.

Your gifts demonstrate the breadth and depth of God's love and your gratitude for the many blessings He has bestowed on you. How wonderful it is that the parish met its goal this year because of your generosity! This is a great sign of unity that brings our parish to another level of sustainability. As the letter to Saint James mentions: "Someone may say to you, 'You have faith and I have works. Demonstrate your faith to me without works, and I will demonstrate my faith to you by my works'" (James 2:18).

Since I came to this parish, I can testify that so many of you have demonstrated your faith through ministry and works. Know that these actions make our parish viable. I am sure it feels good to live in a community that supports its parish and understands the meaning of the mission of the parish.

Thanking you for this great achievement is not enough. Know that I will also keep you in my prayers. The efforts that you made this year bring joy to my heart and deserve to be appreciated. I promised you that reaching our goal would make me dance for joy. Yes, not only did I rejoice with you and for the whole parish, but I also danced for joy!!

Unfortunately, some of you who helped us reach our goal were not present, and I want to be sure to express my gratitude to you and to your family as well. In case you missed this event, we still have a small gift for you that we handed out as a souvenir of the success of this year's House of Charity. Do not look at it as it is, but see in it the great action you did that brings joy to so many others. Besides saying thank you, this is another small way to show my appreciation for your generosity.

I pray, dear Sisters and Brothers, that Almighty God will continue to bless and watch over you and your loved ones.

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

*I want a laity, ... who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it. I want an intelligent, well-instructed laity — I wish you to enlarge your knowledge, to cultivate your reason, to get an insight into the relation of truth to truth, to learn to view things as they are, to understand how faith and reason stand to each other, what are the bases and principles of Catholicism...Cardinal John Henry Newman

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process of welcoming people who want to be full members of the Catholic faith community. This includes those who have never been baptized, those baptized in other Christian denominations, and baptized Catholics who have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. RCIA is not a “class” but rather a journey of faith. In the company of a group of faith-filled parishioners who serve as the RCIA team and with other people inquiring about the Church, and through experiences of prayer, faith-sharing, instruction, and discussion, you will have the opportunity to grow in your relationship with God as you discover how your faith could be nurtured with the Catholic tradition. If you would like to learn more about RCIA please call Father Yvans.

Parish, Diocesan and Community Information

Walking With Moms In Need

At the request of Pope Francis and with the support of the US Catholic bishops, parishioners are encouraged to be informed about the resources available in our parish and the community that could assist pregnant women in crisis and young families in need. Whether this person is a family member, a neighbor or a total stranger, you can be a source of hope to a struggling pregnant woman or young family by providing information about services that could help them in a difficult situation. As Catholics we are called to uphold the sanctity of life and the dignity of all people.

You can view the Walking With Moms In Need document on our parish website home page, under Parish Headlines.

Also, consider downloading the pdf and/or making a paper copy of this information so that it is accessible to share, should you encounter someone in need of these resources. Thank you in advance for your faithful witness to Gospel values.

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you; we bless you; we adore you; we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: Job 38: 1, 8-11

The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said: Who shut within doors the sea, when it burst forth from the womb; when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands? When I set limits for it and fastened the bar of its door, and said: Thus far shall you come but no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 107: 12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is ev - er - last - ing.

Music: Owen Alstott, © 1977, 1990, OCP Publications. All rights reserved.
Text: © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Committee on English in the Liturgy, Inc. (ICEL).

SECOND READING: 2 Corinthians 5: 14-17

Brothers and sisters: The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died. He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer. So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

GOSPEL: Mark 4: 35-41

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

CREED:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
