Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: July 18, 2021

It was 7 year old Ricky who got my vote for “best entry” when he made me laugh out loud as I read his comment. It was the last of a 10 item list of “Kid’s Comments about Love” that I found on Facebook. This is what Ricky wrote: “Tell your wife she is beautiful even if she looks like a truck.”

Granted that Ricky will one day, along with us, have to concede that things like love and bodily appearance change with time, and that beauty is often only skin deep, remaining mostly in the eye of the beholder.

But a question arises from time to time related to this matter of beauty, namely “What does God look like?” Without any full scriptural description of Jesus to go by, we only have hints, as in Our Lord’s famous answer to His apostle Philip: “He who sees Me sees the Father.” But we’re not as fortunate as Philip was, even without the details we might yearn to have. Yes, we do have the holy Shroud of Turin, but that at best gives us an idea of what Jesus our God looked like in death, and not in life.

So along come our imaginations, as varied as there are people living on the planet with us. Add in the portraits of great artists. Then we have to factor in the faces of the many actors who have taken on the role of Jesus for movies about Him. You may have a favorite.

The 4 evangelists who grace our world with their gospels apparently had no interest in this subject, which means that neither did the Holy Spirit who is, after all, their inspiration. The gospels are mainly interested in being catechetical instruments for their readers to get to know and love Jesus. To acknowledge Him as the “Way, the Truth and the Life.” But every now and then the Holy Spirit lets us deduce certain characteristics of Christ that lead us to picture His face and enhance our devotion. Take the words of St. Mark today: “Jesus saw the crowd and His heart was moved with compassion, for they were like sheep without a shepherd.” I picture a look of concern on His Face, and the look of love in His Hebrew eyes.

Reflecting further, we also have here a clear refutation of all those portraits of God as a hardened old man, white-whiskered and watchful for His next opportunity to pounce on us for our least infraction. What a tragedy to carry around such an image of God!

I’ve often thought how it’s such a shame that we have few painted portraits that capture Jesus smiling. He had to look that way when He was with the children, or they might have stayed away from Him. I bet He might have smiled as He pulled St. Peter out of the sea as the Big Fisherman had to be rescued from his short-lived walk on water.

But then there is our belief that we can see Him in the face of others. The people around our dining room table to start. Then on to the faces of our friends old and new. Strangers everywhere. Perhaps even in the face of an elderly bishop whose story fits well with the current Year of St. Joseph.

During Vatican Council II, an aged bishop from Yugoslavia shuffled up to the podium and appealed to the assembled bishops to include the name of Joseph in the First Eucharistic Prayer, or traditional Canon of the Mass. To the majority present this seemed unimportant at the moment. They were concerned with major changes and expressed their disapproval in the routine fashion they had of slapping the bench in unison to the chant, “Non ad rem!” (not to the point).

The old bishop then left the podium and tottered back to his place. But in the papal apartments, Pope (later Saint) John XXIII (who watched all the proceedings on closed-circuit TV) was not amused. He knew that this old bishop had been imprisoned for 9 years in a Communist jail, and that his captors had broken both his legs and simply left him in his pain. During this ordeal the agonizing bishop had prayed to St. Joseph.

Intercessory Prayer Ministry

Parish Prayer Intention for the Week of July 18-24

As we kneel before the Blessed Sacrament in adoration, may our prayers be a source of strength for those who have chosen "life". May the daily rosaries recited by our parishioners, both those in person and those at home, bring solace to all in turmoil. May our repetitive "Hail Mary's" calm the mind and hearts of those we love.

Rosary, Adoration, Pro Life

Let my prayer be incense before you; my uplifted hands an evening offering.

Prayer for Year of Saint Joseph

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father,
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

*I want a laity, ... who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it. I want an intelligent, well-instructed laity — I wish you to enlarge your knowledge, to cultivate your reason, to get an insight into the relation of truth to truth, to learn to view things as they are, to understand how faith and reason stand to each other, what are the bases and principles of Catholicism...Cardinal John Henry Newman

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process of welcoming people who want to be full members of the Catholic faith community. This includes those who have never been baptized, those baptized in other Christian denominations, and baptized Catholics who have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. RCIA is not a “class” but rather a journey of faith. In the company of a group of faith-filled parishioners who serve as the RCIA team and with other people inquiring about the Church, and through experiences of prayer, faith-sharing, instruction, and discussion, you will have the opportunity to grow in your relationship with God as you discover how your faith could be nurtured with the Catholic tradition. If you would like to learn more about RCIA please call Father Yvans.

Stewardship Retreat

"He said to them, 'Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.'" MARK 6:31

Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us to Stewardship? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some "alone" time with God.

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you; we bless you; we adore you; we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: Jeremiah 23: 1-6 Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the LORD. Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds. I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD. Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall reign and govern wisely, he shall do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security. This is the name they give him: "The LORD our justice."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

SECOND READING: Ephesians 2: 13-18 Brothers and sisters: In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

GOSPEL: Mark 6:30-34 The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

CREED:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man”, all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OFFERTORY HYMN: Come to Me
