Feast of the Assumption of Mary: August 15, 2021

"The gift that keeps on giving." You've seen and heard that compliment given to everything from diapers to diamonds and everything in between. Sometimes it's derisive; sometimes complimentary. Here are two instances:

1. To my co-workers, that old video of me acting like an idiot is the gift that keeps on giving. Teasing me about it is their favorite pastime.
2. "I'm telling you, my membership at that gym has been great. I've made so many new friends, strengthened my body, and reduced my anxiety." Just a pair of innocuous statements, untinged with any of the sarcasm that often is used about such gifts.

But now let me take you to a higher plain, up where the air is rare, to the realm where dwells the loveliest creature God ever made. Call her "the lovely Lady dressed in blue" or any one of a hundred titles. She, of course, is the Virgin Mary, once described by the poet Wordsworth as "Our tainted nature's solitary boast." Ah, the power poets have, to say better than what we might like to say! She is, was, and always will be our "gift that keeps on giving" from God Himself.

I always find myself on the verge of getting all choked up when it comes to thinking or talking about Mary. I know I'm not an innocent like the three children at Fatima or Bernadette at Lourdes. I also know and believe how she helped saved the world and everyone in it from a gloomy destiny by her simple "Fiat" (Let it be done) to the awestruck Gabriel. Add to that all the pain she endured because she didn't hesitate to say "yes." From nursing her Holy Child in a crude cave to holding His corpse in her lap a little over three decades later to form the original "Pieta." And all the other hurts that came to her heart that we know about.

Now is it any wonder that a loving God, joyful beyond words that at least one of His creatures corresponded perfectly to His plan for her, would not take her, body and soul, to His dwelling place? Here is how the official words of the Catechism of the Catholic Church describe it: "...the Immaculate Virgin, preserved from all stain of original sin, when the course of her earthly life was finished, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, and exalted by the Lord as Queen over all things, so that she might be the more fully conformed to her Son, the Lord of lords and conqueror of sin and death. The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin is a singular participation in her Son's Resurrection and an anticipation of the resurrection of other Christians."

Picking up on that last phrase, about our future resurrection, we have a guaranteed future with her, as long as we don't sabotage it by unrepented sin. For anyone who drives by a cemetery and is led to wonder what will happen to him or her after death, there's your answer. Somewhat stolidly said, I grant you, but said nonetheless, by the one body chosen by Christ to say it.

I find the doctrinal statement to be inestimable comfort for the family members gathered around the deathbed of a loved one in the ICU ward of a hospital. Incomparable consolation for a penitent who has just confessed a serious mortal sin and heard the words of absolution prayed over her or him. Marvelous attention from her listening ear for anyone just having the kind of day when a hug from her would be welcome. I can vouch for Mary's attentive response and loving assistance given to me over the years for issues I faced, both large and small, right down to the composition of this very reflection.

Obviously none of us are deserving of a bodily assumption. Even the great saints would admit that. Hers was a singular event, as the Catechism put it. None of us are sinless. But as our immaculate Mother, she prays for us her adopted children, and wants us to join her in eternal joy. Some day we will be able to see her with our own eyes as she welcomes us to heaven, looking on us with her lustrous and magnetic smile. I believe that very anticipated meeting is why we pray as often as we can: "Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now, and at the hour of our death. Amen."

God love you and give you His peace!

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

*I want a laity, ... who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it. I want an intelligent, well-instructed laity — I wish you to enlarge your knowledge, to cultivate your reason, to get an insight into the relation of truth to truth, to learn to view things as they are, to understand how faith and reason stand to each other, what are the bases and principles of Catholicism...Cardinal John Henry Newman

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process of welcoming people who want to be full members of the Catholic faith community. This includes those who have never been baptized, those baptized in other Christian denominations, and baptized Catholics who have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. RCIA is not a “class” but rather a journey of faith. In the company of a group of faith-filled parishioners who serve as the RCIA team and with other people inquiring about the Church, and through experiences of prayer, faith-sharing, instruction, and discussion, you will have the opportunity to grow in your relationship with God as you discover how your faith could be nurtured with the Catholic tradition. If you would like to learn more about RCIA please call Father Yvans.

Catechists Needed for Our Faith Formation Program

If you are looking for a meaningful and fulfilling way to serve the Lord, look no farther than our Faith Formation Program. Catechists, those who help to pass on the faith to our children, are a vital part of our parish’s ministry. We have classes on either Sunday mornings or Tuesday afternoons and have availability for most grade levels. Please take some time to pray and see if God is asking you to be a catechist. And don’t be afraid if it feels out of your comfort zone. God is our help and our strength, no matter what zone we find ourselves inhabiting!! If you’d like to discuss this further, please contact Pat Lipperini 858-0298 or plipperini@stteresaofcalcuttanj.org.

Confirmation Preparation for High School Students

For various reasons, many people step away from Confirmation Preparation during their elementary years. If you are in High School and would like to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, we invite you to participate in our High School Prep group. The Confirmation Prep will involve group meetings 2X a month along with opportunities for service and prayer. Candidates would receive Confirmation in the spring when the Diocese schedules are parish for the celebration. If you would like more information, please contact Pat Lipperini, 858-0298 or plipperini@stteresaofcalcuttanj.org.

A Call for Action from the Justice and Life Coordinating Committee

Advocate for Dreamers

Contacting your member of Congress and/or their staff is one of the most effective ways to share your views on the need to pass a permanent, legislative solution for Dreamers. Below is guidance on writing to your Member of Congress about a legislative solution for Dreamers, as well as TPS holders.

Ask Your Senators to Support a Solution for Dreamers As Soon As Possible:

Judge Hanen's ruling shines a light on the fact that DACA has always been only a temporary solution and that Congress needs to act now. We cannot keep leaving Dreamers in limbo, undermining their future in the only country many of them have called home. Take action and tell your Senators to pass a permanent solution for Dreamers! This fact sheet provides an overview of DACA's creation and requirements, as well as relevant information on the broader Dreamer population.

Talking Points:

Bibles, Badges and Business talking points on Dreamers are included in the short guide for congressional meetings. Over the next 10 years, Dreamers who currently have DACA will contribute an estimated $433 billion to the GDP, $60 billion in fiscal impact, and $12.3 billion in taxes to Social Security and Medicare if they can continue to work legally in the U.S. Infographics: Dreamer and TPS Recipient Contributions focus on the contributions of Dreamers and TPS holders in a number of states.

Readings for the Vigil of the Assumption: Saturday

1st Reading: 1 Chronicles 15: 3-4, 15-16; 116: 1-2 David assembled all Israel in Jerusalem to bring the ark of the Lord to the place which he had prepared for it. David also called together the sons of Aaron and the Levites. The Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders with poles, as Moses had ordained according to the word of the Lord. David commanded the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their kinsmen as chanters, to play on musical instruments, harps, lyres, and cymbals, to make a loud sound of rejoicing. They brought in the ark of God and set it within the tent which David had pitched for it. Then they offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings to God. When David had finished offering up the burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm: Lord, go up to the place of your rest, you and the ark of your holiness.

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 15: 54b-57 Brothers and sisters: When that which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, then the word that is written shall come about: Death is swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting? The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Gospel: Luke 11: 27-28 While Jesus was speaking, a woman from the crowd called out and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that carried you and the breasts at which you nursed." He replied, "Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it."

Readings for Masses : Sunday

FIRST READING: Rev. 11: 19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab

God's temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant could be seen in the temple. A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. She was with child and wailed aloud in pain as she labored to give birth. Then another sign appeared in the sky; it was a huge red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and on its heads were seven diadems. Its tail swept away a third of the stars in the sky and hurled them down to the earth. Then the dragon stood before the woman about to give birth, to devour her child when she gave birth. She gave birth to a son, a male child, destined to rule all the nations with an iron rod. Her child was caught up to God and his throne. The woman herself fled into the desert where she had a place prepared by God. Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: "Now have salvation and power come, and the Kingdom of our God and the authority of his Anointed One."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 15: 20-27 Brothers and sisters: Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man. For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the Kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death, for “he subjected everything under his feet.”

 GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

GOSPEL: Luke 1: 39-56 Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled.”

And Mary said: “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me and holy is his Name. He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, and has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever.” Mary remained with her about three months and then returned to her home.

CREED:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man”, all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OFFERTORY HYMN: Holy Is His Name

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord
And my spirit exalts in God my Savior
For He has looked with mercy on my lowliness
And my name will be forever exalted
For the mighty God has done great things for me
And His mercy will reach from age to age

[Chorus]:

And holy, holy, holy is His name

He has mercy in every generation
He has revealed His power and His glory
He has cast down the mighty in their arrogance
And has lifted up the meek and the lowly
He has come to help His servant Israel
He remembered His promise to our fathers

[Chorus]

And holy, holy, holy is His name

Holy, holy, holy is His name
