32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time: November 7, 2021

Imbalance creation is one of the several items in the devil's "toolbox for turmoil." He knows it creates havoc and division, which are his forte and delight. This twin terror usually threatens our trust in God, who is Satan's leading enemy.

Such imbalance affects our physical selves as well as our spiritual lives. Our moral perspective goes askew because of it. And even our relationships with others, who are always to be regarded, according to Jesus, as our brothers and sisters can hit rough spots.

The combined Scripture Readings this weekend compel us to note the economic imbalance that exists among citizens of the world. The Gospel in particular points out that Jesus noticed this, which means God did as well, and obviously still does. He understands its effects in the wrong we often do to ourselves and others.

The two main Readings, which always complement each other in our Liturgies, feature widows. In biblical times, these women were, in our popular phraseology, "at the bottom of the food chain." Being female and bereft of specific male protection left them particularly vulnerable in a patriarchal society. They are always held to be worthy of special love and care by godly people.

The imbalance between rich and poor was most likely not something new in the lives of Our Lord and His contemporaries. It certainly is quite apparent in these days. Note that both of the widows we read about today are unnamed, so they rightly represent The obedient widow of Zarephath. But she did as Elijah commanded and was rewarded for her goodness. The other widow who caught Jesus' eye that long ago day outdid the scribes in authentic generosity. They are a worthy pair.

I believe that where we fit in to these stories happens when we join the disciples Jesus called together for a conference. So imagine yourself being there within range of the Voice we hope one day to hear for ourselves. Would you have been surprised to hear Jesus pronounce that "this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors"? Of course with twenty plus centuries of prayer and preaching we know the facts.

Yes, you could claim that here Jesus is giving us a "pinch in the purse" or a "wallop to our wallet." But I propose that He is really asking us to be balanced people, generous with our hearts, persistent in our loyalty to Him, and our willingness to be as loving as a certain art teacher named Mrs. Abate that I found out about, as reported by her onetime pupil.

In the first grade, Miss Grant said that my purple tepee wasn't realistic enough, that purple was no color at all for a tent, that purple was the color of people when they died, and that my drawing wasn't good enough to hang with the others. I walked back to my seat, head bowed. With a black crayon, I brought nightfall to my purple tent in the middle of the afternoon.

In the second grade, Mrs. Abate said, "Draw anything." She didn't care what. I left my paper blank, and when she came around to my desk, my heart beat like a tom-tom. She touched my head with her small hand and in a soft voice said, "The snowfall. How clean and white and beautiful."

God love you, and give you His peace.

Thanksgiving Day Mass

For our Thanksgiving Day mass, November 25, at 9AM, we ask that you would please bring something you will serve at your family dinner to mass to be blessed. Stewardship of Treasure 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living. " (MARK 12:43-44)

Jesus gets right to the point. We are all called to the Stewardship of Treasure. We are to give money to Church, regardless of our circumstances. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your first fruits" or from what is left?

Remembering Our Deceased

In the past, we have invited families to bring pictures of their departed loved ones to display on the altar during November. This year we will be doing something different.

Those whose loved ones died in the past year will be remembered at the Memorial Mass on November 7. A memorial ornament will be hung on a tree in the deceased person's name for the month of November.

The deceased from past years will be remembered in the Book of the Dead which will be displayed in both churches.

Coming: Parish Mission with Richard Lane

How does one "prepare" for the Incarnation? This is, after all, the greatest event, the greatest act of empathy, in history: God loving us so much as to take on our form.

Commercials and commentators know how we should prepare for Christmas. Given the shortages caused by Covid's supply-chain disruption, we must buy up everything imaginable. Yep, that's how to commemorate the birth of Jesus.

Well, Richard Lane has other ideas. The renowned Catholic evangelist is coming to St. Teresa of Calcutta to conduct a Mission.

Each of four consecutive dates will feature a new, dynamic presentation. To accommodate all schedules, Richard Lane will give every presentation TWICE a day – at 9:30 AM and 7:00 PM. So, please,

SAVE THESE DATES:

Tuesday, December 14 "Hope"

Wednesday, December 15 "Love"

Thursday, December 16 "Joy & Peace"

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

*I want a laity, ... who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it. I want an intelligent, well-instructed laity — I wish you to enlarge your knowledge, to cultivate your reason, to get an insight into the relation of truth to truth, to learn to view things as they are, to understand how faith and reason stand to each other, what are the bases and principles of Catholicism...Cardinal John Henry Newman

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process of welcoming people who want to be full members of the Catholic faith community. This includes those who have never been baptized, those baptized in other Christian denominations, and baptized Catholics who have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. RCIA is not a “class” but rather a journey of faith. In the company of a group of faith-filled parishioners who serve as the RCIA team and with other people inquiring about the Church, and through experiences of prayer, faith-sharing, instruction, and discussion, you will have the opportunity to grow in your relationship with God as you discover how your faith could be nurtured with the Catholic tradition. If you would like to learn more about RCIA please call Father Yvans.

Youth Choir

Our Youth Choir will begin singing at the monthly Family Mass.

If you like to sing or play an instrument (at any level) please consider joining our group and singing for the Lord.

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you; we bless you; we adore you; we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: 1 Kings 17:10-16 In those days, Elijah the prophet went to Zarephath. As he arrived at the entrance of the city, a widow was gathering sticks there; he called out to her, "Please bring me a small cupful of water to drink." She left to get it, and he called out after her, "Please bring along a bit of bread." She answered, "As the LORD, your God, lives, I have nothing baked; there is only a handful of flour in my jar and a little oil in my jug. Just now I was collecting a couple of sticks, to go in and prepare something for myself and my son; when we have eaten it, we shall die." Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid. Go and do as you propose. But first make me a little cake and bring it to me. Then you can prepare something for yourself and your son. For the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the LORD sends rain upon the earth.'" She left and did as Elijah had said. She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well; the jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, as the LORD had foretold through Elijah.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Praise the Lord, my soul.

SECOND READING: Hebrews 9:24-28 Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands, a copy of the true one, but heaven itself, that he might now appear before God on our behalf. Not that he might offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters each year into the sanctuary with blood that is not his own; if that were so, he would have had to suffer repeatedly from the foundation of the world. But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice. Just as it is appointed that human beings die once, and after this the judgment, so also Christ, offered once to take away the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to take away sin but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

GOSPEL: Mark 12:38-44 In the course of his teaching Jesus said to the crowds, "Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues, and places of honor at banquets. They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers. They will receive a very severe condemnation." He sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man”, all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
