Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time: January 30, 2022

The following words are from II Timothy 3: 16-17: “All Scripture (please note that “all”) is inspired by God and is useful for teaching the truth, rebuking error, correcting faults and giving instruction for right living...” So there is no doubt about Scripture’s value as a teaching tool. But there are times when we come upon a situation like the Three Reading selections for this weekend’s Mass. They happen to be so rich “soul food” (not meant as an ethnic reference) that it is difficult for the homilist to decide what to stress, especially with a time constraint.

For me, the startling piece from Jeremiah is enough for a homily. It is the most touching way to describe the intimacy between God and each one of us. “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you.” “Wow!” I think to myself. “Am I really that well known by God?” “Does God consider me worthwhile?” Jeremiah mouths His response: “He does!” Alleluia!

Moving on to the Second Reading, we have the immortal description of love provided by the Holy Spirit working through St. Paul’s Letter. So powerful, so all encompassing, as to leave in the dust all the poets and songwriters to follow. Many engaged couples want this read at their Nuptial Mass, perhaps for themselves and all present for the occasion, to hear loudly and clearly what their upcoming vows mean in the long run. I wonder if the divorce rate would plunge if a plaque inscribed with this section of I Corinthians was placed outside our nation’s courts.

Finally we come to the aftermath of Our Lord’s visit to His hometown synagogue and how His words transformed the little crowd in the room into a lynch mob. So sad. So awful that even we can become with our adverse reactions to certain truths. Thank God Jesus overturns the murder verdict of the mob and calmly walks away.

Three Readings. Three conclusions. A demanding trinity of decisions for us to make on a January Sunday. That’s the power of the Bible. And if we take the time to read it in between the Sundays, we could learn so much more that Google and Wikipedia have to tell us. Then we could learn in detail God’s plan for the world; how He prepared for Christ’s coming in the Old Testament and what Christ said and did when He came. Then we could write our own homily and decide to act on it. So simple. So salvific. After all, “a Bible that’s falling apart often belongs to someone who isn’t.”

God love you and give you His peace.

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

*I want a laity, ... who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it. I want an intelligent, well-instructed laity — I wish you to enlarge your knowledge, to cultivate your reason, to get an insight into the relation of truth to truth, to learn to view things as they are, to understand how faith and reason stand to each other, what are the bases and principles of Catholicism...Cardinal John Henry Newman

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the process of welcoming people who want to be full members of the Catholic faith community. This includes those who have never been baptized, those baptized in other Christian denominations, and baptized Catholics who have not received the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation. RCIA is not a “class” but rather a journey of faith. In the company of a group of faith-filled parishioners who serve as the RCIA team and with other people inquiring about the Church, and through experiences of prayer, faith-sharing, instruction, and discussion, you will have the opportunity to grow in your relationship with God as you discover how your faith could be nurtured with the Catholic tradition.

Candlemas is a celebration of the presentation of Jesus in the Temple as an infant. In many countries, it is the official last day of the Christmas season. Because Jesus is the light of the world, Candlemas has traditionally been a day to bless candles which are then used by families throughout the year. Join us as we celebrate Candlemas. We will learn more about its traditions and share in some special activities. Please call the parish office or email plipperini@stteresaofcalcuttanj.org for reservations.

Stewardship Humility

"Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous..." (1 Corinthians 13:4)

Do you get jealous? Do you focus more on the things that other people have than on the gifts that God has given to you? Are you pompous? Do you acquire more possessions to impress others? At times we are all guilty of these things. Pray for stewardship with humility. Humility helps us become less "self-centered" and become more "God-centered" for the sake of others.

GLORIA:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you; we bless you; we adore you; we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: Jeremiah 1: 4-5, 17-19

The word of the LORD came to me, saying: Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you. But do you gird your loins; stand up and tell them all that I command you. Be not crushed on their account, as though I would leave you crushed before them; for it is I this day who have made you a fortified city, a pillar of iron, a wall of brass, against the whole land: against Judah's kings and princes, against its priests and people. They will fight against you but not prevail over you, for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Your words, Lord, are spirit and life.

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 12:31— 13:13

Brothers and sisters: Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts. But I shall show you a still more excellent way. If I speak in human and angelic tongues, but do not have love, I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy, and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge; if I have all faith so as to move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away everything I own, and if I hand my body over so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous; it is not pompous; It is not inflated; it is not rude; it does not seek its own interests; it is not quick-tempered; it does not brood over injury; it does not rejoice over wrong doing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never fails. If there are prophecies, they will be brought to nothing; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will be brought to nothing. For we know partially and we prophesy partially, but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. When I was a child, I used to talk as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I put aside childish things. At present we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face. At present I know partially; then I shall know fully, as I am fully known. So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

GOSPEL: Luke 4: 21-30

Jesus began speaking in the synagogue, saying: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" He said to them, "Surely you will quote me this proverb, 'Physician, cure yourself,' and say, 'Do here in your native place the things that we heard were done in Capernaum.'" And he said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. Indeed, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah when the sky was closed for three and a half years and a severe famine spread over the entire land. It was to none of these that Elijah was sent, but only to a widow in Zarephath in the land of Sidon. Again, there were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet; yet not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

CREED:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man”, all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
