

SAINT TERESA OF CALCUTTA MISSION STATEMENT

We are the welcoming community of Saint Teresa of Calcutta living our faith by endeavoring to follow her example to see, share and be the light of Christ's love and compassion.

Third Sunday of Easter: May 1, 2022

Parish Information: May 1, 2022

Welcome to Saint Teresa of Calcutta Parish!

We are pleased to have you share in this celebration of the Eucharist. If you do not have a parish home we invite you to become part of our parish family and become fully involved in our life of prayer, education, service and community.

Registration: We invite all parishioners to register with the Parish. Registration helps us to serve you when issuing letters in connection with sponsorship of Baptism, Confirmation or Matrimony, and for letters of reference. Kindly notify the office if your address changes.

Anointing of the Sick: In case of serious illness or advanced age please call the parish office. For hospital cases, contact the hospital Chaplain.

Pastoral Care: Please call the parish office to have Communion brought to an ill or homebound family member.

Marriage: Couples contemplating marriage in the parish must contact the parish office to meet with a priest to begin the marriage preparation process. This is the first step in planning their wedding and needs to be done one year before the date of the wedding.

Baptisms: To arrange a Baptism, contact the Parish Office at least two weeks before the desired date of Baptism to make arrangements. Parents are required to attend a preparation class before the Baptism. Classes will be held at 7PM (Date will be given when you call). Please call the office to register.

Dear Lord, we ask you to turn their weakness into strength, suffering into compassion, sorrow into joy, and pain into comfort for all those listed here.

Let them be filled with patience and joy in your presence as they wait for your healing touch. As you heal and renew your servants, Lord, may they be blessed and praise you. This we ask especially for our parishioners and our friends.

Please pray for our Stephen Ministers and those to whom they minister.

“Call and Response”

Pat Lipperini

Besides the obvious and necessary “nos” that parents utter, which teach their children right and wrong, there is a wide gamut of other strongly worded parental cautions that might express fear of injury, disappointment, or failure. Children mostly listen to that first set of “nos,” otherwise they would not grow into moral people. But they often push against the second set and try activities (sports, hobbies, work) that make their parents (maybe you?) cringe. Perhaps you might remember saying, “I told you not to try that.” Chances are, your children looked at you and kept on going, pulled by a desire that you could not see.

In today’s first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, the apostles stand before the Sanhedrin, criticized for teaching about Jesus. The High Priest states, “We gave you strict orders, did we not, to stop teaching in that name? Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching.” The apostles basically looked at the High Priest, rejoiced at the reprimand, and kept on teaching. The call to speak Jesus’ name was too strong to ignore.

Many parents look back and see the necessity of their child’s directed energy. We have scientists, athletes, writers, and artists who kept to their calling even when it might have first been perceived as excessive. And the world is better because of their expertise. Christians can look back at this moment described in Acts and give thanks that the apostles did not listen to their elders in the faith. They refused to be quieted. Their need to teach about the salvation through Jesus trumped any punishment they might incur.

That same intense obligation has touched followers of Jesus for over two thousand years. St. Paul’s words: “The love of Christ compels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all” (2 Cor. 5:14), embodies the experience of countless preachers and teachers such as St. Patrick, St. Dominic, St. Angela Merici, St. Jean-Baptiste de La Salle, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, and St. John Bosco. But it has also supplied the rationale for all the unnamed saints who faithfully spread the teachings of Jesus by their words and by their lives. They heard a call and needed to respond.

It is that last group that I want to acknowledge today: our catechists, our faithful, fellow parishioners who have felt the compelling need to speak of Jesus to the children of our parish, convinced that knowledge of Jesus is the most important ingredient for a fulfilling life. But they should not go unnamed. For when we know who they are, we may also know something about their real lives—that they have busy, complicated days that do not preclude service in our church.

Thank you to our catechists who had the responsibility to design and lead lessons each week: Ann Allen, Linda Roseboro-Brown, Genevieve Cooperman, Rolland Coutinho, Kathyanne Esposito, Myles Grady, Maureen Gushue, Linda Hasson, Bob Hensler, Lynn Hoban, Marnie Johnson, Ingrid Kennedy, Chris Lim, Grace Longo, Annmarie Mancinelli, Bina Marino, Therese Marmion, Pat O’Connor, Colleen Schlereth, Dermot Sheehan, Cynthia Smith, Kelly Smith, Barry Steele, Joe Turse.

Thank you to our adult aides who subbed for catechists, monitored the halls, cared for sick children: Margaret Hays, Melissa Longyard, Shannon Miller, Peg Moran, Emily Murray, Sharon Schwalm.

And finally, thank you to our high school aides who assisted the catechists and also fearlessly subbed at a moment’s notice: Brendan Bentz, Simon Fisher, Grace O’Meara, Kaci Agnew, Emma Shannon. We were edified by your presence.

I wish them all a peaceful summer and I ask the rest of you to think about becoming a catechist or aide in September or to get involved in parish life in another way. Perhaps there is a voice in your head that you’ve been ignoring. Please take time this summer to think about what the love of Christ might be compelling you to do.

St. Teresa of Calcutta 29th Parish Golf Outing Friday, May 27 at 1PM Valleybrook Golf Club

The Saint Teresa of Calcutta Parish Golf Outing is set for Friday May 27th (the Friday of Memorial Day weekend) with a starting time of 1:00 pm. This is the 30th outing that has been run for the parish by the Men's Club and it has become one of the most anticipated events of the year. It will be held at Ron Jaworski's Valleybrook Golf Club and we are looking for both golfers and sponsors. For golfers, the cost is $100 per golfer and includes golf, box lunch, prize raffle tickets and 50/50 drawing tickets. For sponsors, various sponsorships are available from $50 and up. Sponsors receive an ad in our Golf Outing Program and Ad Book.

Funds raised by the outing allow the Men's Club to adopt families at Christmas, support the sports teams of Saint Teresa of Calcutta Parish, organize retreats and parish missions and much more.

Brochures for sign ups can be found in the back of both churches or by calling either George Klein (856.858.0415), Hal Schwalm (609.605.4273) or Kevin Sheridan (609.685.0305) or e-mailing STCGolfOuting@gmail.com. Information about the outing can also be found on facebook (search for Saint Teresa of Calcutta Men's Club Golf Outing).

Parish Basketball Teams!

The Parish Basketball Teams are seeking players, Grade 3-8 girls and boys, for next season's teams. The current varsity team recently won their league championship. If you would like to play on any of next year's teams, please contact the Athletic Director and varsity Coach, Bob Hensler at 856-858-1170 (w) or 609-519-0198 ©. The parish will also likely be in need of coaches for next season for several of the teams. Keep an eye out for announcements regarding possible "open gym" sessions during the summer. We look forward to your participation!

House of Charity Campaign Prayer

Heavenly Father,
You called us to be one body: your Church.
You blessed us so we may be good servants.
Help us to serve those in need.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who with You and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns
God forever and ever. Amen.

Stewardship Love

"...Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, 'Do you love me?' and he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'" (JOHN 21:17)

How often do you actually say the words "I love you" to Jesus, to family members, or to friends? We are made to be in relationship with God and each other. Sincerely telling someone that you love them is the best gift you can give them because it comes from your heart. You are giving them the gift of yourself. We all crave love. Live your Stewardship by telling someone you love them every day.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

One of the primary missions of our St. Vincent DePaul Society is to assist people in times of emergency. We respond to calls for help on our parish number 856-858-1444. Do you know... What is happening in the Diocese of Camden to protect children?

- Training is provided for all adults and youth to identify warning signs and to develop strategies for maintaining a safe environment for all.
- A designated Victim Assistance Coordinator is available to receive reports and accompany victims through their journey.
- A volunteer independent Diocesan Review Board assists Bishop Dennis Sullivan in the review of cases and makes recommendations for moving forward.
- Every parish and school has a Safe Environment Coordinator who assists parish and school employees and volunteers with training and background checks if they have ongoing contact with children.
- An audit is conducted by an independent firm to evaluate implementation of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People. Findings are incorporated with those of other dioceses and made available in an Annual Report.

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

*I want a laity, ... who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it. I want an intelligent, well-instructed laity — I wish you to enlarge your knowledge, to cultivate your reason, to get an insight into the relation of truth to truth, to learn to view things as they are, to understand how faith and reason stand to each other, what are the bases and principles of Catholicism...Cardinal John Henry Newman

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you; we bless you; we adore you; we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: Acts 5: 27-32,40b-41 When the captain and the court officers had brought the apostles in and made them stand before the Sanhedrin, the high priest questioned them, "We gave you strict orders, did we not, to stop teaching in that name? Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and want to bring this man's blood upon us." But Peter and the apostles said in reply, "We must obey God rather than men. The God of our ancestors raised Jesus, though you had him killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as leader and savior to grant Israel repentance and forgiveness of sins. We are witnesses of these things, as is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him." The Sanhedrin ordered the apostles to stop speaking in the name of Jesus, and dismissed them. So they left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me..

SECOND READING: Revelation 5: 11-14

I, John, looked and heard the voices of many angels who surrounded the throne and the living creatures and the elders. They were countless in number, and they cried out in a loud voice: "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing." Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, everything in the universe, cry out: To the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever." The four living creatures answered, "Amen," and the elders fell down and worshiped.

GOSPEL: John 21: 1-19 At that time, Jesus revealed himself again to his disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself in this way. Together were Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We also will come with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?" They answered him, "No." So he said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea. The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards, dragging the net with the fish. When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught." So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." He then said to Simon Peter a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." Jesus said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. And when he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me."

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man”, all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
