Dear Lord, we ask you to turn their weakness into strength, suffering into compassion, sorrow into joy, and pain into comfort for all those listed here.

Let them be filled with patience and joy in your presence as they wait for your healing touch. As you heal and renew your servants, Lord, may they be blessed and praise you. This we ask especially for our parishioners and our friends.

Please pray for our Stephen Ministers and those to whom they minister.

Pentecost Sunday: June 5, 2022

Eliza Doolittle had reached the breaking point. She is half of the duo, along with the language professor Henry Higgins in the Broadway play and later movie musical “My Fair Lady.” By this point in the story she has become sick of words. Why? Because for days now words, words and more words along with their proper and refined pronunciation have been drummed into her head by the professor. All this to win a bet that he could transform a Cockney flower girl into a refined British lady via her speech.

So when Eliza’s suitor, Freddy Hill, comes courting her by pouring out his heart to her with his speech she has, as we would say, “had it.” She bursts forth with her frustration and demands: “Don’t talk of love, show me!”

That whole scene from the musical came to my mind as I reflected on this well known and very touching post Easter appearance of the risen Lord to the disciples. We know that in the divine plan for our salvation Our Savior came among us to display God’s all embracing love. True, He did so using words immortal. But oh! Did He ever show us so much also with His actions! Consider the washing of the Apostles’ feet.

Here the disciples, huddled in fear of the Romans who had engineered the horror of Jesus’ crucifixion, were beyond themselves with joy and wonder that fine evening long ago when Jesus came in their midst. He also offered them His peace and then showed them the scars left behind on His risen body.

Fifty days afterward, and ten days after the Ascension return of Jesus to His Father, the first Novena was done. Now comes the promised Advocate, the Holy Spirit, to these first members of the Church on what will become known as its “birthday.” A whole panoply of visitors to Jerusalem hear their sermons in their native languages. Babel reversed.

This story overspreads all the hopelessness of the headlines on this twenty-first century Sunday. It permits us to rejoice that God offers us a powerful “show me” demonstration that wherever Jesus is preached to this day, love of God blooms. Our faith in Him and His Church is rewarded. Our hope is renewed. Our love for Jesus is requited.

Meanwhile, there is a wordless answer we can all make to the cynical demands of the world to “Show me!” It is eminently practical, yet it surely involves daily practice. It is this: A Christian is a person who makes it easier for other people to believe in God.”

Weekly Tip on Caring For Our Common Home

During the warmer days of spring and summer, try to use air-conditioning sparingly on particularly warm days. AC uses more energy and contributes to the accumulation of greenhouse gases in the atmosphere, and it also has been demonstrated to have negative health effects, particularly for respiratory and some chronic conditions.

Celebration of the Feast of Corpus Christi

The United States Bishops have approved plans for a National Eucharistic Revival to “renew the Church by kindling a living relationship with Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. The theme for the renewal is: “My flesh for the life of the world.” It will have three phases: Diocesan, Parish, and National.

The Diocesan phase will open with a candlelight Corpus Christi procession on Atlantic City’s boardwalk on the Vigil of Corpus Christi, June 18, at 8PM. We have a group of parishioners who will officially represent our parish. Anyone who wishes to participate is welcome to “follow the banner”. If you are interested in going, please contact the parish office.

We will celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi in our parish on the feast itself: Sunday, June 19 after the 10:00 Mass with a procession around the few blocks near St. John’s Church. During the procession, we will alternate prayers with singing hymns. Along the way, the procession will stop by two parishioners’ homes on Park Avenue for Benediction and then continue to St. John’s Church for the closing.

All are invited!

We hope that many of you will join us for this special celebration!

Pentecost Sunday Positive Stewardship

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (JOHN 14:26)

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. As Stewards we should pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions. What you put in your head, heart and mind affects your actions. Put good things in and good things will come out.

FIRST READING: Acts 2: 1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 12: 3b-7,12-13

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

SEQUENCE: Come, Holy Spirit, come! And from your celestial home, Shed a ray of light divine! Come, Father of the poor! Come, source of all our store! Come, within our bosoms shine. You, of comforters the best; You, the soul's most welcome guest; Sweet refreshment here below; In our labor, rest most sweet; Grateful coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe. O most blessed Light divine, Shine within these hearts of yours, And our inmost being fill! Where you are not, we have naught, Nothing good in deed or thought, Nothing free from taint of ill. Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour your dew; Wash the stains of guilt away: Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray. On the faithful, who adore And confess you, evermore In your sevenfold gift descend; Give them virtue's sure reward; Give them your salvation, Lord; Give them joys that never end. Amen. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: John 14: 15-16, 23b-26

Jesus said to his disciples: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always. "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words; yet the word you hear is not mine but that of the Father who sent me. "I have told you this while I am with you. The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you."

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man”, all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
