Third Sunday of Easter: April 23, 2023

This gem of a story has been “unpacked” by scholars of renown for all that Luke intended when he wrote it down. For a lesser light like myself I see in its structure the influence of Luke’s medical background. First of all, he presents a problem. Then comes an answer, or medicine. Finally there is a follow through and a recuperation of the patient. Allow me to illustrate.

First, the problem. Call it deep disappointment, or letdown. The two companions had witnessed Good Friday, and it left them more than melancholy. Their hopes seemed dashed for good. Their trust and aspirations vanished by Roman cruelty. So they are headed away from the scene, with an urgency to “get out of town.” Do we experience at least some portion of this experience when God seemingly lets us down?

Then comes the cure. And what a cure it is! Suddenly, so typical of Our Lord’s post resurrection appearances, He joins them on the road. When the men explain their long faces, He gives them a complete rationale for everything Jesus did, from Bethlehem to Calvary. Don’t you wish, as I do, that we could have heard all that from the God Man Himself? Anyhow, in our context, it was strong medicine rightly applied.

Finally, the recuperation. It began at that simple table at the roadside inn when Jesus broke the bread with them. Beautifully does Luke tell us how “their eyes were opened” and they recognized Him precisely in “the breaking of the bread.” In other words, the very holy Eucharist first celebrated Holy Thursday night and ever since then, in places high and humble ever since.

Note how the two travelers reverse course, or “make a U turn” as we might put it? With a certain spring in their steps they went right back to the huddled disciples to make their report. They were bursting with new-found faith and revived hope. Cured of confusion. Pledged to pursue a gospel-focused life.

We need this story right now. Unfortunately a lapse of faith has trampled all over the belief of so many of our fellow travelers. You see it in the empty pews on weekends. You hear it in their casual opinions about the place of Mass in their weekly agenda. You feel it in the loss of unity among families that used to gather at church on a Sunday morning.

Right at hand for easy blame is Covid. The shutdown of our churches during the pandemic and the ease of watching Mass on TV. An obvious happenstance I believe orchestrated by none less than Satan just like the clergy abuse scandal is. He hates the Eucharist because he hates God. And cleverly he goes about tearing down our faith and love of the good Lord who keeps giving it to us.

Even the devil knows that the Eucharist by nature is a communal affair. Our Lord’s chosen way of instituting this amazing gift was with a group of people around the table. Like any important celebration, there is nothing like being there. Our job as loyal followers is to wake others from their lethargy. To see Our Lord’s words “Do this in memory of Me” as the cure for so much that weighs them down. The counterfeit comfort that their chosen distractions offer. How sorely we need the Emmaus story. Thank you, Doctor St. Luke for giving it to us!

God love you and give you His peace!

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

I want a laity, ... who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it. I want an intelligent, well-instructed laity — I wish you to enlarge your knowledge, to cultivate your reason, to get an insight into the relation of truth to truth, to learn to view things as they are, to understand how faith and reason stand to each other, what are the bases and principles of Catholicism... Cardinal John Henry Newman

Faith Formation Teaching Mass

During the past two years, Fr. Yvans has celebrated a special monthly mass for designated grades during our Faith Formation classes. This is an effort to further the children's liturgical education by helping them to feel comfortable and knowledgeable about why we do what we do at mass. It has been a great blessing to our program.

If we don't teach
our children
to follow Christ,
the world
will teach them not to.

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you; we bless you; we adore you; we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: Acts 2: 14, 22-23 Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "You who are Jews, indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem. Let this be known to you, and listen to my words. You who are Israelites, hear these words. Jesus the Nazarene was a man commended to you by God with mighty deeds, wonders, and signs, which God worked through him in your midst, as you yourselves know. This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God, you killed, using lawless men to crucify him. But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it. For David says of him: I saw the Lord ever before me, with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed. Therefore my heart has been glad and my tongue has exulted; my flesh, too, will dwell in hope, because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption. You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence. "My brothers, one can confidently say to you about the patriarch David that he died and was buried, and his tomb is in our midst to this day. But since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to the netherworld nor did his flesh see corruption. God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Exalted at the right hand of God, he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured him forth, as you see and hear."

SECOND READING: 1 Peter 1: 17-21 Beloved: If you invoke as Father him who judges impartially according to each one's works, conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb. He was known before the foundation of the world but revealed in the final time for you, who through him believe in God who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

GOSPEL: Luke 24: 13-35 That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred. And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing as you walk along?" They stopped, looking downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?" And he replied to them, "What sort of things?" They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him. But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive. Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see." And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures. As they approached the village to which they were going, he gave the impression that he was going on farther. But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man”, all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Hymn: “In Christ Alone” Breaking Bread # 415

VERSE 1

In Christ alone my hope is found
He is my light, my strength, my song
This cornerstone, this solid ground
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm
What heights of love, what depths of peace
When fears are stilled, when strivings cease
My comforter, my all in all
Here in the love of Christ I stand .

VERSE 2

In Christ alone my hope is found
He is my light, my strength, my song
This cornerstone, this solid ground
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm
What heights of love, what depths of peace
When fears are stilled, when strivings cease
My comforter, my all in all
Here in the love of Christ I stand .

VERSE 3

There in the ground His body lay
Light of the world by darkness slain
Then bursting forth in glorious day
Up from the grave He rose again
And as He stands in victory
Sin's curse has lost its grip on me
For I am His and He is mine
Bought with the precious blood of Christ.

VERSE 4

No guilt in life, no fear in death
This is the pow'r of Christ in me
From life's first cry to final breath
Jesus commands my destiny
No pow'r of hell, no scheme of man
Can ever pluck me from His hand
'Til He returns or calls me home
Here in the pow'r of Christ I'll stand.

RECESSIONAL HYMN: "Alleluia1 Alleluia!" Breaking Bread #171

VERSE 1

Alleluia, alleluia!
Hearts to Heav'n and voices raise:
Sing to God a hymn of gladness,
Sing to God a hymn of praise.
He, who on the cross a Victim,
For the world's salvation bled,
Jesus Christ, the King of glory,
Now is risen from the dead.

VERSE 2

Now the iron bars are broken,
Christ from death to life is born,
Glorious life, and life immortal,
On the holy Easter morn.
Christ has triumphed, and we conquer
By His mighty enterprise:
We with Him to life eternal
By His resurrection rise.

VERSE 3

Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory be to God on high;
Alleluia! to the Savior
Who has gained the victory;
Alleluia! to the Spirit,
Fount of love and sanctity
Alleluia, alleluia!
To the Triune Majesty!
