Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time: June 18, 2023

Did you know that the more you watch or listen to the news the more pessimistic you tend to become? My experience in the confessional verifies this. It's not necessarily a long-lasting condition, but it can return quickly by way of almost any conversation that gets past the weather.

Psychologist Jennifer James offers a strategy for keeping things in perspective. She writes: "To reduce stress, simply turn off your TV, radio, cell phone, smart watch or whatever device you use, and go easy on the news websites and magazines...You don't have to tune out forever, just take a rest. Anxiety, even if it is the manufactured kind, can make us very cranky."

I think the doctor makes a good point. I happen to know a priestly confrere who told me he once committed himself to avoid the news for 2 years! He said that he reached his goal a while ago. I believe his story, even if I could never imitate his solution. I do like to know the news and cultural trends so as to apply the Gospel to them in homilies.

No one, including myself, is suggesting that you shouldn't stay well-informed. But at the same time, it is so easy to overdo anything in life, even something that's a basic good.

Note a detail in today's First Reading, where we read that Yahweh commissioned Moses with a message. Fast forward to the New Testament, and we come to today's Gospel passage. Our Lord commissioned His chosen Twelve to announce the Good News. What was that? The kingdom of God is near at hand. News that was necessary. Information of the highest value. It still deserves our undivided attention.

Our present world and its topsy-turvy culture is a challenging place to live in as a Christian. Same for anyone of good will who respects law and order and a person's right to live in peace. Nonetheless, Jesus tells us we all have a mission to address that culture with our own. We can make this world better because Jesus is with us all days. If our numbers bother you, just look what Jesus did with only Twelve!

I want to give a nod here to Father's Day with one relevant and touching story: A little boy, frightened by a thunderous lightning storm, called out one dark night "Daddy, come. I'm scared!"

"Son," the father replied, "God loves you and He'll take care of you." "I know God loves me," the boy replied. "But right now, I want somebody who has skin on."

God love you, men, and keep up the good work of giving God "skin."

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

GLORIA: Breaking Bread: Inside front cover

FIRST READING: Exodus 19: 2-6a

In those days, the Israelites came to the desert of Sinai and pitched camp. While Israel was encamped here in front of the mountain, Moses went up the mountain to God. Then the LORD called to him and said, "Thus shall you say to the house of Jacob; tell the Israelites: You have seen for yourselves how I treated the Egyptians and how I bore you up on eagle wings and brought you here to myself. Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine. You shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation."

SECOND READING: Romans 5: 6-11

Brothers and sisters: Christ, while we were still helpless, yet died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. How much more then, since we are now justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath. Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life. Not only that, but we also boast of God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

GOSPEL: Matthew 9:36-10:8

At the sight of the crowds, Jesus' heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest."

Then he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits to drive them out and to cure every disease and every illness. The names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew, Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James, the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus; Simon from Cana, and Judas Iscariot who betrayed him.

Jesus sent out these twelve after instructing them thus, "Do not go into pagan territory or enter a Samaritan town. Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, drive out demons. Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give."

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
