Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: July 30, 2023

I have frequently asked St. Anthony to live up to his reputation as a “Finder of Lost Articles.” From his help long ago in finding my precious school ring as a senior in high school all the way up to my miraculous medal only two months ago, “Holy Tony” has been my “go to” man when I’ve lost something. Of course, these material objects are not to be ranked as the really important things in life. It’s just easier to live when we know where they are.

Young King Solomon knew that even before he asked for wisdom in governing as the new ruler of his people. He and the other unnamed people in Our Lord’s “kingdom parables” are Our Lord’s way of setting the standards for us on how to live and act with true wisdom. Implied here are items like anticipating the future; remembering the past as a guideline; acting in the present with your priorities aligned with God’s. Anticipating; remembering; acting: a threefold plan reflecting present day wisdom. When we adopt such wisdom, ultimately based on belief in God’s divine providence, we have a foolproof plan for life.

The question can arise “Why do we so often go wrong?” One answer is “human weakness”. Another is “battle weariness” from our daily struggle with a world opposed to Christ and His ways.

The good news here is the antidote only the Church can give through sacramental grace. Using Pope Francis’ metaphor for the Church as a “field hospital,” amid the battlefield of the world makes the answer even clearer. There we will find doctors and nurses well-trained to give us the necessary “first aid.”

By that I mean a Church where forgiveness abides in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, formerly named Penance; where friendship and fine-tuned mercy flourish from the conviction that “God and other people” come before one’s self. Incidentally, that’s a new way to interpret the word “Joy” as an acronym expressing one’s priorities: J is for Jesus; O is for Others; and Y is for you (rightly in last place.) As a member of such a Church, we can never really get lost. Besides that, we can learn a new way to spell “joy” and be happy to live it.

God love you; keep you found; and mindful of what real joy is.

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

LIFE-LONG FAITH FORMATION

Growing in Faith At Every Age

A Message from Our New Director of Faith Formation

Dear Parishioners,

I am excited to introduce myself as the newly appointed Faith Formation director for St. Teresa of Calcutta Parish. I am looking forward to being able to serve this community and to be able to work with the parish clergy, staff, volunteers, and youth of the parish. I have been a part of St. Teresa of Calcutta parish for the past few years, and I have been part of the different ministries that this parish offers. These ministries have helped me greatly with my spiritual life. Your involvement to the parish is vital and is what helps the parish flourish. I encourage you to consider being a catechist/catechist aide and continue to help spread God's love to the youth of the parish and deepen your own knowledge on the Catholic faith.

God Bless,
Daniela Perez, Faith Formation Director

Choosing The Chosen Together: Season Three

We Catholics welcome chances to discuss aspects of our Faith with each other. A widely acclaimed series, The Chosen, seems a particularly helpful vehicle for doing that. Watching and discussing the first two seasons went so well that we are continuing with Season Three this fall.

ALL are welcome to our first session, presenting Episode 1, on Wednesday, September 20 at 7:00 PM in McLaughlin Hall.

Each subsequent week will cover the next episode. Again, there will be two sessions each week: one on Tuesdays at 9:30 AM and the other on Wednesdays at 7:00 PM. Choose The Chosen – at the time best for you.

IMPORTANT: There is absolutely NO requirement for anyone to have participated in all, or any, of the prior two seasons. Each episode stands on its own.

To express interest in participating, please use the sign-up sheets in the back of each church, or email Fran Boyer at bfboyer17@gmail.com.

GLORIA: Breaking Bread Inside front cover

FIRST READING: 1Kings 3:5, 7-12

The LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night. God said, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you." Solomon answered: "O LORD, my God, you have made me, your servant, king to succeed my father David; but I am a mere youth, not knowing at all how to act. I serve you in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a people so vast that it cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant, therefore, an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong. For who is able to govern this vast people of yours?"

The LORD was pleased that Solomon made this request. So God said to him: "Because you have asked for this— not for a long life for yourself, nor for riches, nor for the life of your enemies, but for understanding so that you may know what is right— I do as you requested. I give you a heart so wise and understanding that there has never been anyone like you up to now, and after you there will come no one to equal you."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Lord, I love your commands.

SECOND READING: Romans 8: 28-30

Brothers and sisters: We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified; and those he justified he also glorified.

GOSPEL: Matthew 13: 44-52 or Matthew 13: 44-46

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.

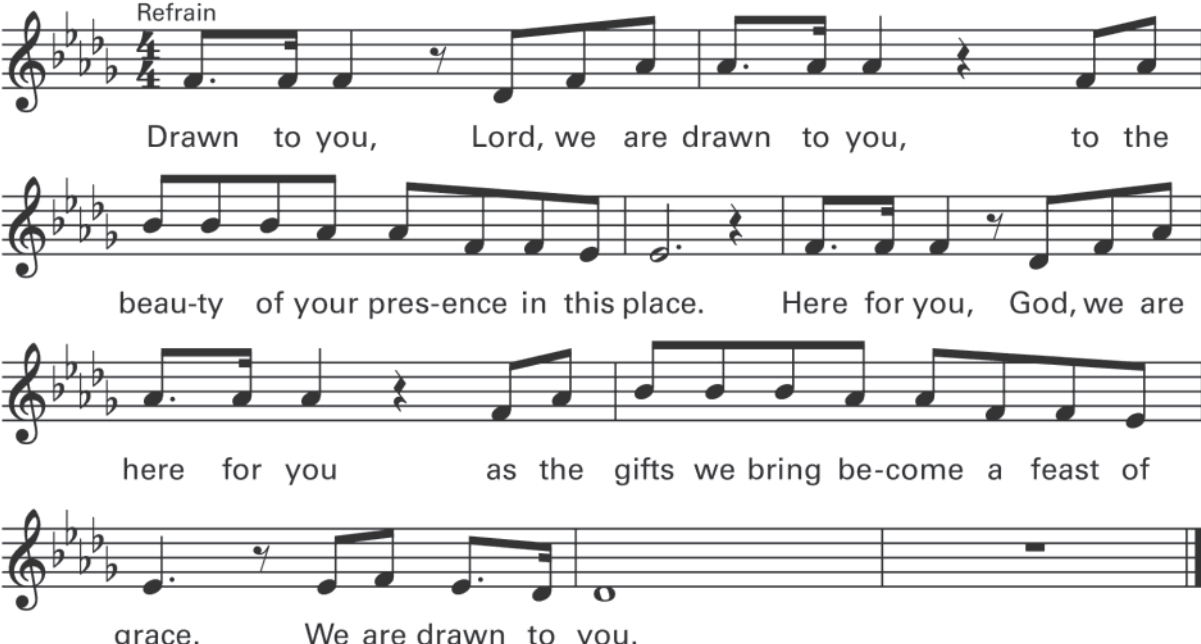

"Do you understand all these things?" They answered, "Yes." And he replied, "Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."
