Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time: August 20, 2023

Sometimes a given instruction can backfire if misapplied. “Don’t bother reading the manual” said to the owner of a new car can cause him or her to lose out on a built-in safety feature of their new “ride.” “Don’t worry about punctuation” told to a law student writing a paper might well cause the writer’s grade to drop rather quickly from “A” to “C.” “Don’t take no for an answer” is the worst advice to give a job seeker dependent on a humble self-presentation.

Evidently, however, that kind of slipshod thinking never entered the mind of the unnamed Canaanite mother, the hero in our Gospel story today. She wanted Jesus’ help to end her daughter’s misery. So she asked, and was not put off by Our Lord’s apparent dismissal of her.

She didn’t care about all the negative impressions she gave other people, especially the prejudiced people around Jesus at the time. “Go ahead, label me ‘an unclean Gentile.’ I don’t care. I want to ask for Jesus’ help because I believe in His ability to heal my daughter.

When she did get Our Lord’s powerful rebuke about not feeding dogs, she responds with the truth about dogs eating table scraps from their master’s table. Our Lord was at first stunned a bit, but He quickly realized how great was her faith.

After I get over my shock at the woman’s strong retort, I have to admire her for the same reason Jesus did: Her belief in Him. Try as I might to love, honor and obey Our Lord Jesus Christ, I often fail. I want, on the one hand, to be loyal to Him as my Lord and Savior. But on the other hand, like St. Paul, I go and do the exact opposite when a strong temptation comes along. I could claim being hounded by the devil as the poor woman’s daughter was. But that’s hypocritical because Our Lord never lets us be tempted beyond our power to resist.

Do I dare say “Lord, I’m only human.”? He has every right to reply, “But you have my Spirit living in you! You are not calling on Him. You have the capacity to be superhuman, because of divine grace inside you.”

Only then do I wake up to the truth. Only then can I not only admire the Canaanite woman but also act like her. Having humility and bravery when asking God’s help. Here is a pertinent thought from the poet Nancy Spiegelberg:

“Lord I crawled across the barrenness to you with my empty cup. Uncertain in asking any small drop of refreshment. If only I had known you better I’d have come running with a bucket.”

God love you always and give you His peace.

Stewardship Calling

God has a special mission in mind for each of us. He has given us the gifts we need to accomplish that mission. We are called to be good Stewards by using those gifts to do the work that He has planned for each of us. If we deny our gifts or fail to use them as God calls us to use them, then some part of His work will be left undone. Each of us has a part in God's salvation plan.

Choosing The Chosen Together: Season 3

We Catholics welcome chances to discuss aspects of our Faith with each other. A widely acclaimed series, The Chosen, seems a particularly helpful vehicle for doing that. Watching and discussing the first two seasons went so well that we are continuing with Season 3.

ALL are welcome to our first session, presenting Episode 1, on Wednesday, September 20 at 7:00 PM in McLaughlin Hall.

Each subsequent week will cover the next episode. Again, there will be two sessions each week: one on Tuesdays at 9:30 AM and the other on Wednesdays at 7:00 PM. Choose The Chosen ☐ at the time best for you.

IMPORTANT: There is absolutely NO requirement for anyone to have participated in all, or any, of the prior two seasons. Each episode stands on its own.

To express interest in participating, please use the sign-up sheets in the back of each church, or email Fran Boyer at bfboyer17@gmail.com.

Aides Needed

St. Theresa of Avila said, "Christ has no body on earth but yours; no hands, but yours; no feet but yours." While he lived on earth, Jesus sent disciples out in pairs to help in his work of evangelization. We believe that today He is calling adults and teens of our parish to be catechists and aides who prepare the minds and hearts of children to hear and respond to the Good News throughout their lives.

Aides are needed for all Grades on Tuesdays.

Saint of the Week

St. Rose of Lima, born as Isabel Flores de Oliva (1586-1617), is the first person from the Americas to be canonized. She was born in Lima, Peru, and from an early age, displayed remarkable piety and devotion to God. Despite facing numerous hardships and opposition from her family, she dedicated her life to prayer, fasting, and helping the poor and sick. She became known for her ascetic lifestyle and extreme acts of penance, which earned her the title of the "First Rose of the New World." St. Rose of Lima is admired for her unwavering faith and love for God.

GLORIA: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you; we bless you; we adore you; we glorify you; we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 56: 1, 6-7

Thus says the LORD: Observe what is right, do what is just; for my salvation is about to come, my justice, about to be revealed. The foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, ministering to him, loving the name of the LORD, and becoming his servants— all who keep the sabbath free from profanation and hold to my covenant, them I will bring to my holy mountain and make joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: O God, let all the nations praise you!SECOND READING: Romans 11: 13-15, 29-32

Brothers and sisters: I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I glory in my ministry in order to make my race jealous and thus save some of them. For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead? For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable. Just as you once disobeyed God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now disobeyed in order that, by virtue of the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy. For God delivered all to disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

GOSPEL: Matthew 15: 21-28

At that time, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon." But Jesus did not say a word in answer to her. Jesus' disciples came and asked him, "Send her away, for she keeps calling out after us." He said in reply, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." But the woman came and did Jesus homage, saying, "Lord, help me." He said in reply, "It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters." Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour.

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
