

SAINT TERESA OF CALCUTTA MISSION STATEMENT

We are the welcoming community of Saint Teresa of Calcutta living our faith by endeavoring to follow her example to see, share and be the light of Christ's love and compassion.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time: January 21, 2024

Parish Information: January 21, 2024

Welcome to Saint Teresa of Calcutta Parish!

We are pleased to have you share in this celebration of the Eucharist. If you do not have a parish home we invite you to become part of our parish family and become fully involved in our life of prayer, education, service and community.

Registration: We invite all parishioners to register with the Parish. Registration helps us to serve you when issuing letters in connection with sponsorship of Baptism, Confirmation or Matrimony, and for letters of reference. Kindly notify the office if your address changes.

Anointing of the Sick: In case of serious illness or advanced age please call the parish office. For hospital cases, contact the hospital Chaplain.

Pastoral Care: Please call the parish office to have Communion brought to an ill or homebound family member.

Marriage: Couples contemplating marriage in the parish must contact the parish office to meet with a priest to begin the marriage preparation process. This is the first step in planning their wedding and needs to be done one year before the date of the wedding.

Baptisms: To arrange a Baptism, contact the Parish Office at least two weeks before the desired date of Baptism to make arrangements. Parents are required to attend a preparation class before the Baptism. Classes will be held at 7PM (Date will be given when you call). Please call the office to register.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time: January 21, 2024

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

In all our popular sports we find “fair play” and “foul play” with referees and umpires necessary to decide. But in good literature we often find something called “word play.” Our natural reaction as readers of such is enjoyment and remembrance. Word play always involves making jokes by using the meanings of words in an amusing and clever way. That’s precisely why the word “play” is part of its title. However, word play can also create more serious observations if it is used deliberately.

Recall G.K. Chesterton’s statement that “Christianity has not been tried and found wanting; it has been found difficult and left untried.”

Nestled in today’s Gospel passage from St. Mark’s first chapter is exactly the case of word play made with serious undertone is Jesus’ remark to His early followers: “Come after Me and I will make you fishers of men.” I happen to love that line. I love proclaiming it to you. Why? Because it captures something special. It is a trait of Our Lord that the gospel writers usually don’t refer to, and that is Jesus’ sense of humor. That helps round out His personality and makes Him attractive. For so He is and always will be.

But here and now, let us focus on those first three words He says, namely “Come after Me.” There is no word play here, but a serious call addressed not only to the men on that long ago seaside but also to us. In plain terms, with little “play” present, just what prevents us from doing what Jesus asks? Or pretending we didn’t hear what He said? Coming after Him ultimately means not going after other realities. And we get a little nervous. Why?

If we are honest with ourselves, we usually go after other things. We might say one or the other of the “Big Three,” namely: “Wealth, Honor and Fame.” Sometimes it’s a combination of those. Or a subdivision like greed. Anything but going after Jesus. So here and now, as we begin this third week of a new year, it would be a good “play” to go with Jesus for a welcome change.

Meantime, there are always examples of how word play can take us by surprise. Helena Modjeska (1844-1909) was one of the most popular actresses of her time because of her emotional style and superb ability. Once, to demonstrate the raw power of that ability, she gave a dramatic reading in her native tongue, Polish. No one at the sedate dinner party understood Polish, but all were in tears by the end of her performance. Such was the power of her presentation. Only later was it revealed that the piece that had moved the sophisticated audience to tears was the Polish alphabet!

God love you and give you His peace.

Men's Club Corner January, 2024

The Men's Club was diligently at work this Christmas season to help make the season brighter for the parish and greater community. The Men's Club erected the creches outside each church, along with the Christmas trees on each altar. We adopted a total of 8 families, each with a different degree of need this Christmas season, which included gifts for 15 children. On December 29th, the Men's Club, along with members of the Spirited Business Works' ministry, served breakfast at the Joseph House in Camden. Last but not least, we delivered over 100 winter hats to the Cancer Center of America for children dealing with cancer. If you would like to learn more about the Men's Club, please reach out to us via email at stteresamensclub@yahoo.com or call/text Joshua Wiener at 609-502-3539.

Bereavement Ministry

Are you grieving the loss of a loved one? Would you find it helpful to meet in a supportive, faith-filled group with others on the same journey of grief? If so, please consider joining one of the seven-week bereavement groups. Upcoming sessions are scheduled:

Thursdays: January 18 – February 29 at 7 PM

McLaughlin Hall

April 4—May 16 at 7 PM—Mc Laughlin Hall

July 11—August 22 at 7 PM—Mc Laughlin Hall

Each session consists of seven 90-minute meetings where you can share your story, remember your loved one and begin to find ways to adjust to your new life in the company of others who understand. Commitment to attend the full seven- week series is requested. All sessions are facilitated by fellow parishioners who have completed the Diocesan Bereavement training. For more information please contact Bill McLaughlin at guilfordmanor@aol.com or (856) 854-0286. You can also contact Linda Roseboro-Brown at larb1953@gmail.com.

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Good Stewardship

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." - MARK 1:17

Jesus' call to "follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good Stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule, but that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

St. Timothy, Bishop and Martyr (d.c. 97) Feast Day: January 26th

Timothy was the son of a Greek father and Eunice, a Jewish mother who, together with her mother, Lois, converted to Christianity. These two women were responsible for Timothy's early instruction in the faith and were commended by St. Paul in his second letter to Timothy. Timothy was living in Lystra when St. Paul visited there around the year 47. He joined that saint for the second and third of his missionary journeys and is frequently mentioned in the Bible in both the Acts of the Apostles and in Paul's letters. Timothy was with Paul at the founding of the church in Corinth. He was probably with Paul when the apostle was imprisoned in Caesarea and, later, in Rome. Timothy was himself imprisoned, but was later set free.

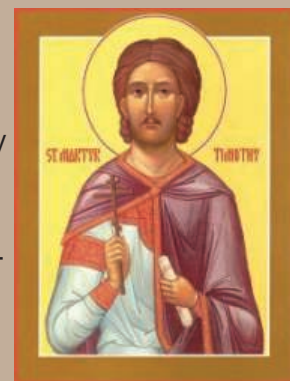

We can learn something from the two letter of St. Paul to Timothy, his chosen successor. In the first, Paul charges Timothy to use his gifts well, to select his bishops and deacons carefully, to take care of widows, to preach only sound doctrine, and "no longer drink only water, but take a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent ailments."

In the second letter, the most personal of all his writings, Paul is nearing the end of his life ("I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." 2 Tm 4:7). He gives Timothy further advice on how to conduct his ministry, and tells him to "be strong in the grace which is ours in Christ Jesus." He also speaks of his loneliness in prison, and his great friendship for Timothy, and his desire for Timothy to visit him.

According to tradition, Timothy became the first bishop of Ephesus and was stoned to death there when he opposed a pagan festival.

Timothy's message today: Tradition tells us that Timothy followed Paul's advice and used his gifts well. He was indeed "strong in the grace which is ours in Christ Jesus." Jesus asks us to do the same, that is, to use our gifts well and be strong in the grace that God gives us.

How are you using the gifts that God gave to you? Do you sometimes forget that Jesus is with you, giving you the grace that will help you to be strong?

A Weekly Tip on Caring for Our Common Home

During chilly winter months wear an extra layer (or two!) around the house and lower the setting on your thermostat. This can preserve resources, reduce waste emissions and save money. Installing a programmable thermostat will allow you to automatically reduce heating at night or at times when no one is home. #72

FIRST READING: Jonah 3: 1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying: "Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you." So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD'S bidding. Now Nineveh was an enormously large city; it took three days to go through it. Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing, "Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed, " when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Teach me your ways, O Lord.

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 7: 29-31

I tell you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out. From now on, let those having wives act as not having them, those weeping as not weeping, those rejoicing as not rejoicing, those buying as not owning, those using the world as not using it fully. For the world in its present form is passing away.

GOSPEL: Mark 1: 14-20

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

COMMUNION HYMN: "We Are Many Parts" Breaking Bread #585

Refrain

We are man - y parts, we are all one bod - y, and the gifts we have we are giv - en to share.
May the Spir - it of love make us one in - deed;
one, the love that we share, one, our hope in de - spair, one, the cross that we bear.
