Holy Saviour: William Campe r/b the Campe Family

Trinity Sunday: May 26, 2024

Most of the powerful sellers, like Amazon and Walmart, will automatically follow up a sale with a request for an evaluation. They'll pose questions like "How was the buying process?" or "What rating do you give the product?" The same holds for doctors and hospitals, in which they ask, "How was the visit?" "Did you have a reasonable waiting time to see the doctor?" "Were the facilities clean?" Both groups really want your answers, and they make policy decisions based on them. They want to use their power to promote the company or the practice as the case may be.

Today's gospel gives the one instance in which Jesus declares His power. Note, please, that He claims, "all power," and not just some. A real uplift for people who fear that evil seems to be overwhelming us.

But more importantly is Our Lord's unstated but obvious positive evaluation of the eleven men before Him, followed by what the Scripture scholars rightly declare as "The Great Commission." Go, baptize, teach all that I have commanded you."

When these chosen men were nearing their deaths, they chose successors for the mission, whom today we call the pope and the bishops.

They in turn have reminded us, particularly since the time of Pope Pius XII beginning in the fifties, that the laypeople in the Church have a special part in the task, by reason of their baptism. They teach by word and action about dogmas like the Holy Trinity. That can be done from the start by teaching the words and gestures involved in making the Sign of the Cross, especially when entering the church building and before all meals.

Whenever we falter or have doubts and fears about going about this task imposed by our baptism into the Church community, we need only recall Christ's words recounted today: "I am with you always."

One added note of incentive: we also will be evaluated someday by God Himself on how we obeyed His command and for how long. Yes, a bit scary. But mostly motivation for any of us who are in weakness may not bother because we are ashamed, or lazy or lack motivation.

The story has been told about a frog who fell into a large pothole and couldn't get out. Even his friends couldn't get him to muster enough strength to jump out of the pothole. They gave him up to his fate. But the next day they saw him bounding around just fine. Somehow, he made it out, and so they asked him how he did it, adding, "We thought you couldn't get out." The frog replied, "I couldn't, but a truck came along, and I had to."

God love you, and give you His strength.

SOUTH JERSEY CATHOLIC MINISTRY APPEAL PRAYER

Heavenly Father,
From the depths of your riches, you gave us your Son.
In the Eucharist, we have our spiritual sustenance and our focus.
Sustain us, guide us and bless us as we carry out our work, always mindful of our purpose.
For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be glory forever.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord,
Who with You and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns
One God forever and ever.
Amen.

Reflection on a Principle of Catholic Social Teaching Rights and Responsibilities

People have a fundamental right to life, food, shelter, health care, education, employment and to participate in decisions that affect their lives. The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved, only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities to respect the rights of others in the wider society and to work for the common good. Hence, to claim one's rights and ignore one's duties, or only half fulfill them, is like building a house with one hand and tearing it down with the other." (St. John XXIII, Peace on Earth [Pacem in Terris], no. 30) When the dignity of the human person is respected, and his or her rights recognized and guaranteed, creativity and interdependence thrive, and the creativity of the human personality is released through actions that further the common good. May: Mental Health Awareness Month.

Mental illness affects millions of people and their families nationwide. Mental health disorders include anxiety, depression, seasonal affective disorder, or more serious illnesses as bipolar disorder, schizophrenia, and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD). Symptoms can include shifts in mood, anxiety, irritability, delusions, hallucinations, and sleep problems.

Treating a mental illness is not something to attempt on your own. Like many health conditions, help for mental illness takes professional diagnosis and treatment.

The good news: Treatment for mental illness is effective. With appropriate treatment, people can manage their illness, overcome challenges, and lead productive lives. And like physical health conditions, the earlier you get treatment for mental illness, the better—and the better you or your loved one will feel and do.

If you or a loved one is experiencing symptoms of mental illness, get treatment or help them get treatment. Call SAMHSA's National Helpline at 1-800-662-HELP (4357), or text your zip code to 435748 (HELP4U) for 24-hour, free and confidential treatment referral.

DINNERS TO DOORSTEPS

We provide meals for people or families who are ill, disabled, living alone, parents of new babies, etc. We also provide meals for individuals and families who are struggling to put food on the table. If you need help, please call Michele. Everything is strictly confidential. More Info.: Contact Michele Santiago at : 609-598-1787 or email her at the following: grandma-rose73@yahoo.com.

St. Justin, Martyr (Feast Day: June 1)

Patron of philosophers

Justin, the first significant Christian apologist, was born to Greco-Roman parents and received an excellent education in rhetoric, history, poetry, and philosophy. Dissatisfied with the philosophies he studied, he encountered an old man who introduced him to a divine philosophy revealed by the Israelite prophets and fulfilled in Jesus Christ. This encounter led Justin to study Scripture and convert to Christianity at about thirty years old.

At a time when Christianity was largely misunderstood by outsiders, Justin believed that proper presentation could lead many to accept it. He began teaching and writing about Christian beliefs and practices, including the Eucharist. Justin traveled widely, engaging in debates with pagan philosophers, heretics, and Jews. In Rome, after besting the Cynic philosopher Crescens in a public debate, Crescens denounced him to the authorities. Justin and six other Christians were tried before the Roman prefect, Rusticus, and, after refusing to sacrifice to Roman gods, were condemned to torture and death.

Text: 11 12 12 10; Reginald Heber. 1783–1826, alt. Music: John B. Dykes, 1823–1876.

FIRST READING: Deuteronomy 4: 32-34, 39-40

Moses said to the people: "Ask now of the days of old, before your time, ever since God created man upon the earth; ask from one end of the sky to the other: Did anything so great ever happen before? Was it ever heard of? Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as you did, and live? Or did any god venture to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by testings, by signs and wonders, by war, with strong hand and outstretched arm, and by great terrors, all of which the LORD, your God, did for you in Egypt before your very eyes? This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other. You must keep his statutes and commandments that I enjoin on you today, that you and your children after you may prosper, and that you may have long life on the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you forever."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

SECOND READING: Romans 8: 14-17

Brothers and sisters: For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

GOSPEL: Matthew 28: 16-20

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they all saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
