Reflection by Rev. Yvans Jazon

Dear Parishioners,

It has been five years of grace and blessings for me here at Saint Teresa of Calcutta Parish. I want to thank you all for accepting me as your priest, your pastor, and a member of Saint Teresa's parish family. The Lord sent me to you the same way he used to send the apostles. Saint Paul, in his letter to the Romans 15:7 writes, "Therefore, welcome one another just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God."

You welcomed me here to minister to you all. Thank you for all your help and support. I admire your enthusiasm and your desire to be with the Lord. Your charisms in so many aspects have helped me be the priest the Lord has called me to be. When I came here some people heard my name for the first time, and soon you became good friends, good helpers, and good supporters of my ministry here.

I want you all to know that working with you has had an amazing impact in my life, whether as a challenge or as an encouragement. Together, we faced many rocky moments that could have had a big impact on us, but through prayer, we overcame them.

Thank you to the parish council for supporting me in everything that I do. You all were there for me during the COVID pandemic, working together to support the people in our parish. We formed a good team, and we worked very well together. Your ideas and your positive attitude brought us to a different level where we learned together how to overcome difficult moments in our lives.

I am sincerely grateful to the many people who have been great supporters of this parish. They are always there to help wherever they are needed. I want to thank all the ministries who have done a tremendous job in volunteering to serve the people of God and bringing our community closer to one another.

Most of all, thank you all for your encouragement. I sincerely appreciate it. You have boosted my faith. May the Lord continue to bless and protect you. My first mass at Saint Peter and Paul will be offered for all your intentions. I will miss Saint Teresa of Calcutta Parish. It was a great experience for me with so many good and faithful people. Again, thank you all for allowing me to be a servant of the Lord. At this time God is calling me to minister to another great community which I will embrace with an open heart. I count on your continuous prayers, and I will continue to pray for you.

God love you and give you His peace,
Fr. Yvans Jazon
Pastor

St. Junipero Serra
Feast Day July 1
Patron of California and Vocations

No one influenced the settlement of California more than Padre Junipero Serra. Born Miguel José Serra in Petra, Majorca, he was educated at the Franciscan convent of San Bernardino, where he developed a love for saints whose names he later used for California's cities and missions. Ordained in 1737 and renamed Junipero, he became a philosophy professor and earned a theology doctorate in Spain. Despite potential for higher positions, he pursued his dream of becoming a New World missionary, arriving in Mexico in 1749. For twenty years, he served in northeastern Mexico and Mexico City. In 1768, after the Jesuits were expelled, King Carlos III tasked the Franciscans with taking over their missions in Baja California and expanding north. Serra led this effort, focusing on converting natives rather than colonization. He baptized over 6700 natives, improved their living standards, and introduced agriculture, crafts, and music.

From 1769 to 1782, Serra established nine missions from San Diego to San Francisco, creating a network still active today.

FIRST READING: Wis 1:13-15; 2: 23-24

God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living. For he fashioned all things that they might have being; and the creatures of the world are wholesome, and there is not a destructive drug among them nor any domain of the netherworld on earth, for justice is undying. For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

SECOND READING: 2 Cor 8: 7, 9, 13-15

Brothers and sisters: As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also.

For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality. As it is written: Whoever had much did not have more, and whoever had little did not have less.

GOSPEL: Mark 5: 21

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him. There was a woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years. She had suffered greatly at the hands of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet she was not helped but only grew worse. She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak. She said, "If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured." Immediately her flow of blood dried up. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. Jesus, aware at once that power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who has touched my clothes?" But his disciples said to Jesus, "You see how the crowd is pressing upon you, and yet you ask, 'Who touched me?'" And he looked around to see who had done it. The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you.

Go in peace and be cured of your affliction." While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?" Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.
