

SAINT TERESA OF CALCUTTA PARISH

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Come spend some quiet time with Jesus.

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time B

“The stage is set,” so to speak, for the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. Meanwhile, we see the temporary popularity of Jesus and His wonderful compassion for the people who have followed Him.

Magnets have long fascinated me. The first time I held one and watched a bunch of paper clips fly to it started my interest. Later I saw them hold forth on a refrigerator, where they anchored hand-crafted birthday cards created by a 2nd grader, along with trinkets gained from travel. Today I make them work to hold up doctor’s appointments, or seasonal invitations. I even own a powerful pair of hook magnets that I place on both sides of a storm door glass strong enough to hold a heavy Christmas wreath.

By extension, the word “magnetic” comes along to describe another kind of attraction. For example, a popular Catholic radio personality on Sirius XM radio named Gus Lloyd has produced a booklet all about the “qualities of a magnetic Catholic.”

Today’s Gospel from Mark highlights the ultimate magnetism that Jesus had for His followers. Soon enough, they got to experience His beautiful compassion for them as He feeds a large crowd with a few loaves and fishes.

It is time for us, right here and now, to reflect a bit on this magnetism of Jesus. Obviously, the chief source of it is His divine nature. Even though the people of His time would only learn of it in stages, they will ultimately get to see a side of God not immediately obvious: His compassion. Loaves and fishes multiplied become the sign that will lead the people to ask themselves “What sort of man is this?”

Meanwhile, we who are blest with bibles and faith nurtured by prayer and study will have the answer. Yet we must also determine whether we have allowed the magnetism of our Risen Lord to work on us?

Sometimes I think we have built up some kind of blockage to hold sway. It could be by an unquestioned acceptance of the twisted values of our present First World culture that features a complete disregard for life at either end via abortion or euthanasia. Or the steady devaluation of legitimate civil or Church authority witnessed by the cable news cycle. Or that selectivity about Church teachings popularly known as “Cafeteria Catholicism.” The latter leads to a casual dismissal of the Eucharistic presence of Jesus in the consecrated bread and wine that become His Body and Blood.

It’s important for us to know that the magnetism of Christ is never completely blocked. But God will never force Himself on us. For we always have His gift of free will. I find it always helps me when I remember that “the powers-that-be” will someday be “the powers-that-have-been.”

Stewardship Calling

"He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." MARK 6:31 Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you to Stewardship? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some "alone" time with God

Principle of Catholic Social Teaching Preferential Option for the Poor and Vulnerable

While God’s love is universal, this principle does not intend that we should focus on the poor to the exclusion of others, but rather that we are called to prioritize those who are weak, vulnerable and in the most need. A basic moral test for our society is how we treat those who are poor and vulnerable in our midst. In a society marred by deepening disparities between rich and poor, Scripture gives us the story of the Last Judgment (see Mt. 25:31 - 46) which reminds us that we will be judged by our response to the “least among us.” This preferential option for the poor and vulnerable includes all who are marginalized in our nation and beyond - unborn children, persons with disabilities, the elderly and terminally ill, and victims of injustice and oppression.

Bishop Sullivan has requested that we participate on the weekend of August 10th and 11th, in a collection to commemorate the centennial celebration of the First Mass being celebrated inside the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC. For generations, America's Catholic Church has served as the heart of spiritual comfort in our Nation's Capital for local, visitors, and pilgrims. This National Shrine was built by and for the faithful of our country, in honor of our Blessed Mother, the patroness of the United States. Since 1924 more than 7,000 Ordinations to the Priesthood have been celebrated in the Shrine.

Please help to preserve Mary's Shrine for generations to come and honor our Blessed Mother through your generous gift to her shrine. Special envelopes will be available, or you can visit nationalshrine.org/centennial to make a contribution. Please be generous.

MASS READINGS

GLORIA: is on the inside front cover of the Breaking Bread book

FIRST READING: Jer 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the LORD. Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds. I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD.

Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall reign and govern wisely, he shall do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security. This is the name they give him: "The LORD our justice."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 23:1-3, 3-4, 5, 6 The Lord is my shepherd, there is nothing I shall want.

SECOND READING: Eph 2:13-18

Brothers and sisters: In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ.

For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

GOSPEL: Mark 6: 30-34

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them.

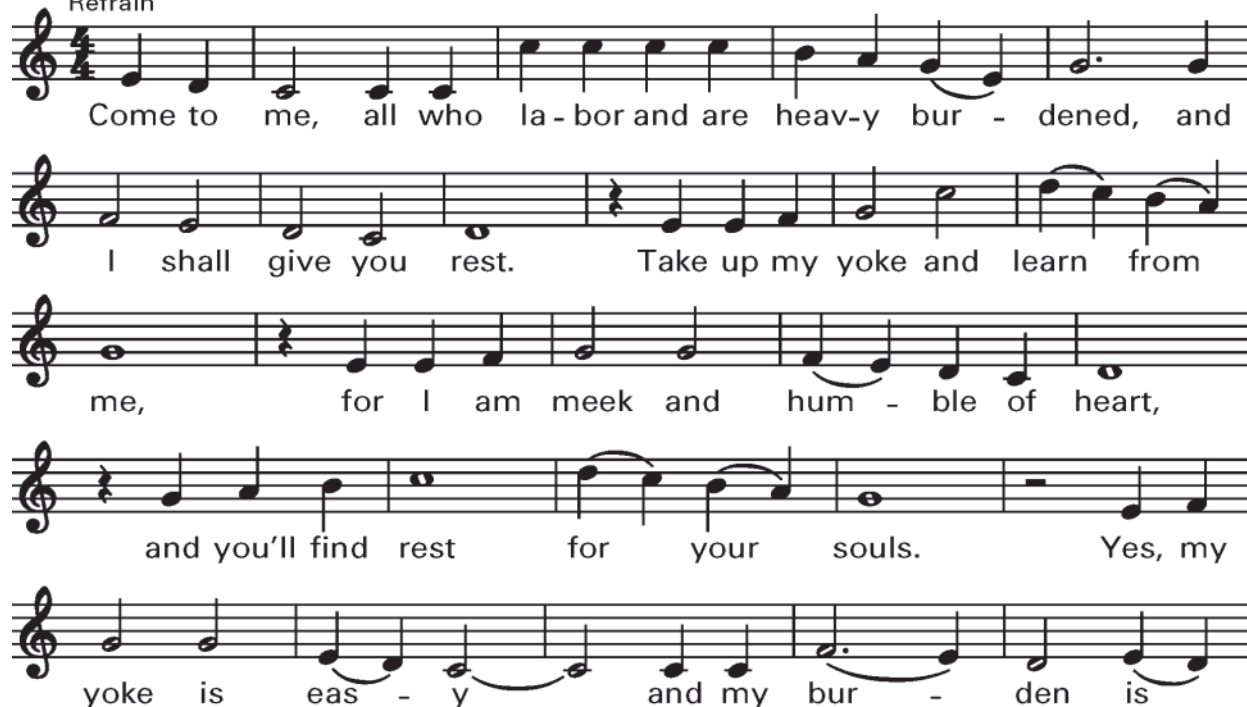

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.
