Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time B

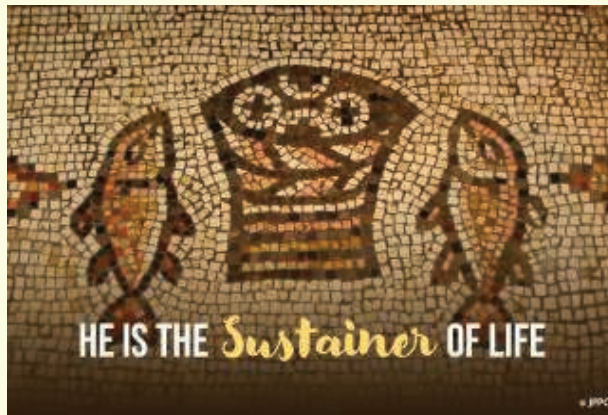

Reflection:

Tests are the bane of student life. So much so that young people do not even want to talk about them on a summer vacation day in late July. But tests, we know, are a necessary component of the education process. It starts out slowly in kindergarten and stretches to graduate school.

Interestingly enough, tests of various kinds even have their place in the Bible. Even the holy Apostles had to endure them. Case in point: the perplexed apostle Philip in today's well-known episode. Jesus, who is, after all, the Master teacher observes the crowd of some ten thousand people (allowing for wives and children) who have followed Him. So, he turns to Philip and asks, "Where can we buy enough food for them?" (Please note, with a touch of humor, the complete absence of something called a "supermarket.") And then our author writes the six-word comment: "He said this to test him."

Not surprisingly, we were not given Philip's answer. But very surprising for sure was the follow up action of Jesus for both him and the other Eleven. Philip and the others will soon learn that this miracle was only a preview of another one to follow on Holy Thursday night.

For us, living some two thousand years later, we have the benefit of at least three in resisting the pull of our the false idea that truth is numbers are never an obstacle. He can and does feed billions around the world spiritual (and our) living out the Gospel.'

sand years later, we have consoling facts to hold dear Western culture that pushes relative. First consolation: cle for almighty God's stratagies of Catholics now food to energize their (and

Second consolation: the Eucharist, as the true Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus is the true treasure of our Church, having nothing to do with real estate or any other measurement.

Third consolation: Jesus has kept His promise to be with us "all days until the end of the age." Each holy Mass is proof. Each of us is its beneficiary. Therein lies the fact of the matter and the core of our belief. It does not change with the passage of time. Nor does it ever need updating. Only in our hearts.

There is a story of a man who came to his old friend, a music teacher, and asked him, "What's the good news today?" The old teacher was silent as he stood up and walked across the room, picked up a hammer, and struck a tuning fork. As the note sounded out through the room, he said, "That is A. It is A today; it was A five thousand years ago, and it will be A ten thousand years from now. The soprano upstairs sings off-key, the tenor across the hall flats on his high notes, and the piano downstairs is out of tune." He struck the note again and said, "That is A, my friend, and that's the good news for today."

God love you and give you His peace every day.

PARISH AND COMMUNITY INFORMATION

Stewardship Sharing

“There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?” JOHN 6:9 The miracle of the Loaves and Fishes carries two important Stewardship messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him. Nothing is impossible with God. All of our gifts, big or small, were given to us for a reason. No gift is too small or insignificant!

Seniors' New Ministry at St. Teresa of Calcutta

The Parish is starting an outreach program to assist people who are shut-in either at home or in a nursing home. Our Mission is to assist the parish's senior citizens who need companionship and support. We'll be contacting family members, visiting nursing homes, and private residences to see where we can be of assistance.

St. Alphonsus Liguori

Feast Day: August 1

Patron of Moral Theologians

Vatican II emphasized that moral theology should be deeply rooted in Scripture and highlight the Christian vocation's dignity and the obligation to act with charity. St. Alphonsus fought against the rigid Jansenism of his time, focusing on practical issues for pastors and confessors. His works emphasized moderation and kindness, despite later tendencies towards legalism and minimalism in moral theology not stemming from his teachings.

Alphonsus earned doctorates in canon and civil law at 16 but soon pursued a religious life, becoming a priest and engaging in parish missions, confessions, and forming Christian groups. In 1732, he founded the Redemptorist congregation, dedicated to missions among rural peasants. Despite initial setbacks, the congregation was eventually approved.

Alphonsus reformed preaching and confession practices, promoting simplicity and kindness over the era's pomp and rigorism. He also served as a bishop, reforming his diocese. His later years were marked by struggles within the Redemptorist congregation and personal suffering, including severe health issues and spiritual trials.

Bishop Sullivan has requested that we participate on the weekend of August 10th and 11th, in a collection to commemorate the centennial celebration of the First Mass being celebrated inside the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC. For generations, America's Catholic Church has served as the heart of spiritual comfort in our Nation's Capital for local, visitors, and pilgrims. This National Shrine was built by and for the faithful of our country, in honor of our Blessed Mother, the patroness of the United States. Since 1924 more than 7,000 Ordinations to the Priesthood have been celebrated in the Shrine.

Please help to preserve Mary's Shrine for generations to come and honor our Blessed Mother through your generous gift to her shrine. Special envelopes will be available, or you can visit nationalshrine.org/centennial to make a contribution. Please be generous.

MASS READINGS

GLORIA: is on the inside front cover of the Breaking Bread book

FIRST READING: 2 Kgs 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the firstfruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat." But his servant objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat." "For thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.'" And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said. ✞

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 145:10-11, 15-16, 17-18 The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

SECOND READING: Eph 4: 1-6

Brothers and sisters: I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

GOSPEL: Mark 6: 30-34

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

 2. We'll tri-umph through our sor-rows And rise to bless you still:

1. We lift our hearts be-fore you And wait up-on your word,
 2. To mar-vel at your beau-ty And glo-ry in your ways,

1. We hon-or and a-dore you, Our great and might-y Lord.
 2. And make a joy-ful du-ty Our sac-ri-fice of praise.
