

SAINT TERESA OF CALCUTTA PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

*We are the welcoming community of Saint Teresa of Calcutta living our faith by endeavoring to follow her example to see, share and be the light of Christ's love and compassion.
Thirty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time November 24, 2024*

PARISH INFORMATION: November 24th, 2024

Happy Feast of Christ the King and Thanksgiving Week!

Welcome to Saint Teresa of Calcutta Parish!

We are pleased to have you share in this celebration of the Eucharist. If you do not have a parish home we invite you to become part of our parish family and become fully involved in our life of prayer, education, service and community.

Registration: We invite all parishioners to register with the Parish. Registration helps us to serve you when issuing letters in connection with sponsorship of Baptism, Confirmation or Matrimony, and for letters of reference. Kindly notify the office if your address changes.

Anointing of the Sick: In case of serious illness or advanced age please call the parish office. For hospital cases, contact the hospital Chaplain.

Pastoral Care: Please call the parish office to have Communion brought to an ill or homebound family member.

ADORATION

THIS WEEK we ask you to adore Jesus in one another on Thursday, THANKSGIVING DAY!

Reflection for November 24, 2024 – Celebration of Christ the King

by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

As I reflected on this weekend's Scripture ensemble, I suddenly went back to my teaching days, when an assignment would be handed to my students to "Compare and Contrast" two given items. We can do that easily enough with a perceptive look at the three Readings. The first two are replete with grand promises and great glory to be given rightfully to Christ, compared with the Gospel, which comes crashing down to earth, so to speak, with a jolt.

I'd like to consider mainly the gospel. Note within it the appeal of high drama plus the comfort of knowing our faith is well-founded. First, the drama. Here we return briefly to Good Friday, where we get to compare and contrast Pilate and Jesus.

The procurator is in a kind of pressure cooker. Here he stands well within the "comfort zone" of his headquarters, surrounded by protective guards, ready to punish severely anyone who would challenge his leadership. Recall that his wife has urged him several times to steer clear of any involvement with the man from Nazareth. Now that very man is standing in front him. Behind him, Pilate can hear the roar of the crowd outside, drummed up by the enemies of this prisoner. What should he do? The Jewish priests despise the man. They control the mob. In Pilate's mind, he knows Caesar is watching the whole episode.

So, Pilate decides to ask Jesus the key question of his petty concern: "Are you a king?" The whole idea seems ludicrous, considering the beaten condition of the man Jesus before him, His head bleeding from a thorn helmet the brutal Roman soldiers had made to be a crown. He's obviously feeling weary from a long night of mistreatment by His captors. Yet somehow, He exudes royalty. Compared with this stern Roman standing there in a finely woven toga, a signet ring on his finger, fresh from a good breakfast and surrounded by rough and ready protection.

"You say I am a king," answers Jesus, "For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." How I wish we could all hear the tone of that Voice! We could then easily compare and contrast His power with Pilate's pettiness. But more importantly, we could hear the strength and conviction in Christ's voice. We would certainly be encouraged.

Why the need for courage? Because there is another crowd just outside the Catholic Church this very day full of hate for God, and anger at us for believing in Him. Anger at us because we are a blockage to spreading their lies about nearly everything. It's a veritable "catalog of confusion" they offer with a topsy-turvy value system bound to fail.

We derive our confidence from the Good News of the Gospel. That's why, when we compare and contrast the two viewpoints, we must be so grateful for the leadership and love of our true King, Jesus Christ. He is at the top of our Thanksgiving Day list of blessings. "To Him be glory and power forever!"

Happy Feast of Christ the King and Happy Thanksgiving Week!

PARISH NEWS AND COMMUNITY INFORMATION

Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe Stewardship Sharing

"Jesus answered, 'My kingdom does not belong to this world.'" (JOHN 18:36) Life is short. How much time, energy and money do you put into building "your" kingdom here on earth? We all know we can't take it with us. The real kingdom is in the next life. Yet, how much time, energy and money do you invest in working for that eternal kingdom? Ask God for His guidance. Detach from earthly possessions. Generously share through Stewardship your material goods with others for the greater glory of God.

St. Teresa of Calcutta Parish Council

Parish Pastoral Councils provide a way for pastors to consult their people. Simply put, members of the Parish Council are the "eyes and ears" of the parish. This is essential in pastoral planning. In developing the parish's future goals and strategies, few considerations are more important than who we are, what we are doing, and to what we aspire. In 1983, the Church placed renewed emphasis on Parish Pastoral Councils to assist pastors in their service to parishes and parishioners. (It also distinguished them from the similarly vital role of Parish Finance Councils, which assist the pastor with expertise in finance, law and business practices.) Specifically, Council members:

- examine – identify any issue that involves the pastor serving the parish;
- consider – carefully and prayerfully ponder the information gathered; and
- recommend – propose solutions or steps to be taken in the best interests of the parish.

Members of your Parish Council serve to enhance two-way communication. We consider the Parish Mission Statement far more than just a slogan. Please help us to help you enhance our welcoming community through vibrant ministries and faith-based action.

Our Parish Council members are:

YOUNG MARRIED COUPLES (POST CANA) Fall Event Schedule

We thank the members of St. Teresa of Calcutta Parish for their generous contributions at our Roses for Life Sale on November 9 and 10. Over $500 was raised.

The money will be donated to local Pro-Life organizations and is eligible for a matching donation by the Knights' Supreme Council.

HEALTH & WELLNESS MINISTRY

Do you work in the medical field as a nurse, doctor, therapist or other healthcare professional? If so, you have the unique perspective of seeing how the body, mind and spirit work together to improve the health and well-being of individuals. It's this combination of physical, emotional and spiritual care which helps to heal the whole person. If you are seeking to utilize your healthcare background in a practical, non-clinical ministry, please prayerfully consider joining the Health and Wellness Ministry at St. Teresa of Calcutta parish.

Ministry members focus on the intentional care of the spirit through health and wellness promotion and being a resource to fellow parishioners. An informational meeting will take place on Wednesday December 5th at 7pm at McLaughlin Hall. Questions: bshannonrn@verizon.net or 856-297-4894.

A Principle of Catholic Social Teaching Call to Family, Community & Participation

The human person is not only sacred but also social, thus human development takes place in relationship with others. Marriage and the family are the central social institutions of a society and therefore must be supported and strengthened. How we organize our society—in economics and politics, in law and policy—directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community. People have a right and a duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable. “The existence of each individual is deeply tied to that of others: life is not simply time that passes; life is a time for interactions.” (Pope Francis, Brothers and Sisters to Us [Fratelli Tutti])

Update On Special Intention Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremonies

Wednesday, Dec. 4, 2024-Holy Saviour, 7pm

Thursday, Dec. 5, 2024, 7pm -St. John's

We are about to gather as a parish family to prepare for Christmas in a very special way. At the heart of the ceremonies is every parishioner's chance to place their special intentions on a slip of paper, then inside an ornament, and then that ornament on a tree.

Amid reflection and prayer, there is music, caroling and hot chocolate. We have exciting news about the music. Each night will feature a very talented high school choir. Wednesday will be Haddon Township and Thursday, Camden Catholic. Seriously consider participating in both.

From these evenings through Christmas Day – and beyond – these lighted Christmas trees will represent our parish community praying for each other's special intentions as well as our own.

Please Join Us for Either or Both Special Intention Tree Lightings, Spread the Word, and Invite Anyone You Like

MASS READINGS—November 24, 2024

GLORIA: is on the inside front cover of the Breaking Bread book

FIRST READING :

Dn 7:13-14

As the visions during the night continued, I saw one like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven; when he reached the Ancient One and was presented before him, the one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

Ps 93:1, 1-2, 5

SECOND READING:

Rv 1:5-8

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, who has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen.

Behold, he is coming amid the clouds,
and every eye will see him,
even those who pierced him.
All the peoples of the earth will lament him.
Yes. Amen.

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, " says the Lord God,
"the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty."

GOSPEL :

Jn 18:33b-37

Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?" Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here." So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth.
Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

COMMUNION HYMN: "Spirit and Grace" Breaking Bread #362

SPIRIT AND GRACE

Ricky Manalo, CSP

1. Spir - it and grace, here in this meal;
2. Spir - it and grace, here in this meal;
3. Spir - it and grace, here in this place;
4. Spir - it of God, send - ing us forth;

1. you are the wind that breathes through the field.
2. you are the life that flows through the vine.
3. you are the light that shines in this space.
4. we spread your wis-dom through-out all the earth.

1. Gath - er the wheat — and form us in Christ.
2. Gath - er this drink — and form us in Christ.
3. Gath - er your peo - ple and form us in Christ.
4. Gath - er the na - tions and form us in Christ.

1. Come, be our source and breath of life.
2. Come, be our source and blood of life.
3. Come, be the heart - beat of our lives.
4. Come, be the pres - ence in our lives.

In the bread, blessed, bro-ken and shared, Christ is our life, whose presence we bear. Come, O Spir - it, make your grace re - vealed in this ho - ly meal.
