Reflection for the 4th Sunday of Easter (Good Shepherd Sunday)

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

World Day of Prayer for Vocations, and Mother's Day

There has been a lot of media chatter these days about our country's enemies and their threats to our country's defenses. We are the envy of many other people who share this earth with us.

More important for us as believers in Christ is the defensive position we must take to preserve religious freedom. That comes about by our steadfast fidelity to the Creed we pray at every Sunday Mass dating back to the Council of Nicaea in 325 A.D.

But long before that Council, St. Paul, our greatest missionary, made it abundantly clear to his audiences that Jesus Christ is our surest defense against the main enemy of our souls: Satan the father of lies.

In the present secular culture that dominates our country, where the mere mention of the word "God" makes a lot of people uncomfortable, we need to have a more robust Christian faith. I daresay it was easier some fifty or so years ago. (I took comfort recently when I saw some television news personnel proudly wearing their forehead crosses on Ash Wednesday evening. A tiny breakthrough.)

These thoughts prompt me to remind you of one of best "tools" for a muscular maintenance of our faith life, namely the Sacrament of Reconciliation, or Penance. There is nothing like the feeling of relief one gets after a good sacramental confession.

On two other matters, the first is that today our Church marks the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Specifically, we're asked to pray for young men and women to consider either a vocation to the permanent diaconate, or the priesthood or the consecrated life as the case may be. Prayer is a major component, but so is your encouragement to a young man or woman who mentions their attraction to one or the other. You're helping the Holy Spirit do His work!

The second matter also on our minds today is our country's "Mother's Day." We honor that very special person in our lives. Allow me to close these reflections with the tribute of an imperfect but still very great man to his mother:

"My mother was the most beautiful woman I ever saw. All I am I owe to my mother. I attribute all my success in life to the moral, intellectual and physical education I received from her." – George Washington

God love you and give you His peace.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Purpose: to pray for vocations from your school/parish/diocese/world in any possible way.

*Loving God, you call all who believe in you to grow perfect in love by following in the footsteps of Christ your Son.
Call from among us more men and women who will serve you as religious.
By their way of life, may they provide a convincing sign of your Kingdom for the Church and the whole world.*

*Gracious and loving God, help the men and women of our parish to hear the call to serve in the Diocese of Camden.
Our needs are great and our people thirst for your presence.*

*Open the hearts of many, raise up faithful servants of the Gospel, dedicated,
holy priests, sisters, brothers and deacons,
who will spend themselves for your people and their needs.*

*Bless those who are serving now with courage and perseverance.
Grant that many will be inspired by their example and faith.*

*We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.*

"The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit." (ACTS 13:52)

The disciples heard Our Lord's call and were able to spread the Gospel message with strength and vitality. We, too, can experience that same joy if we make room for the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts. When we use our gifts in the way that God intends, Jesus fills his Stewards with supernatural joy. A joy that others notice and are attracted to!

OUR LADY OF FATIMA FEAST DAY: MAY 13

Between May and October 1917, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to three children—Francisco, Jacinta, and Lucia—in Fatima, Portugal. She urged them to pray the rosary daily for peace, for sinners, and for the conversion of the world. Mary entrusted them with three secrets involving devotion to her Immaculate Heart, a vision of hell, and a prophetic vision later associated with the 1981 attempt on Pope John Paul II's life. The Church officially recognized the apparitions in 1930, and the feast of Our Lady of Fatima was added to the Church calendar in 2002.

Our Lady of Fatima called the world to prayer, sacrifice, and conversion through the simple faith of children. In what ways is God inviting me—amid today's challenges—to deepen my prayer life, trust in Him more fully, and respond with the same faith and openness as the children of Fatima?

MASSES OF WELCOME & INCLUSION SENSORY FRIENDLY LITURGIES all God's People

VITALity's Ministry with the Deaf and Persons with Disabilities invites all persons with disabilities and their families to experience, throughout their lifespan, their essential belonging in their parish, the Diocese, and the Church at large. Our Ministry works with clergy, families, and other partners to facilitate and encourage everyone to participate fully in their parishes and communities.

SENSORY FRIENDLY LITURGIES Several parishes throughout the Diocese of Camden are creating sensory friendly environments during Mass. This may include dimmed lighting, not using incense, having a shorter homily, playing acoustic music or playing softer music. Individuals and families are welcomed to get up and move around, bring wiggle seats, fidgets, noise canceling headphones, or a comfort toy. These liturgies benefit people with sensory processing issues, autism, intellectual and developmental disabilities and adults with Alzheimer's Disease and dementia.

Support the South Jersey Scholarship Fund's Spring Sprint for Scholarships appeal running now through June 30. Last year, the fund provided scholarship assistance for 165 Catholic school students in the Diocese of Camden. FIRST READING:

Acts 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas continued on from Perga and reached Antioch in Pisidia. On the sabbath they entered the synagogue and took their seats. Many Jews and worshipers who were converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to remain faithful to the grace of God.

On the following sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and with violent abuse contradicted what Paul said. Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, “It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you first, but since you reject it and condemn yourselves as unworthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, I have made you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be an instrument of salvation to the ends of the earth.”

The Gentiles were delighted when they heard this and glorified the word of the Lord. All who were destined for eternal life came to believe, and the word of the Lord continued to spread through the whole region. The Jews, however, incited the women of prominence who were worshipers and the leading men of the city, stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in protest against them, and went to Iconium. The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Ps 100:1-2, 3, 5

SECOND READING:

Rv 7:9, 14b-17

I, John, had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. Then one of the elders said to me, “These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

“For this reason they stand before God’s throne and worship him day and night in his temple. The one who sits on the throne will shelter them. They will not hunger or thirst anymore, nor will the sun or any heat strike them. For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

GOSPEL:

Jn 10:27-30

Jesus said: “My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father’s hand. The Father and I are one.”

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man”, all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
