18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 3, 2025

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are the welcoming community of Saint Teresa of Calcutta living our faith by endeavoring to follow her example to see, share and be the light of Christ's love and compassion.

PARISH INFORMATION: August 3, 2025

Welcome to Saint Teresa of Calcutta Parish!

We are pleased to have you share in this celebration of the Eucharist. If you do not have a parish home, we invite you to become part of our parish family and become fully involved in our life of prayer, education, service and community.

Registration: We invite all parishioners to register with the Parish. Registration helps us to serve you when issuing letters in connection with sponsorship of Baptism, Confirmation or Matrimony, and for letters of reference. Kindly notify the office if your address changes.

Anointing of the Sick: In case of serious illness or advanced age please call the parish office. For hospital cases, contact the hospital Chaplain.

Pastoral Care: Please call the parish office to have Communion brought to an ill or homebound family member.

Bulletin Reflection Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

We can all easily see that scene from books, plays, or movies called “The Reading of the Will.” A group of people are gathered in a lawyer’s office to hear him read out the terms of what a deceased supposedly “loved one” has decided for his inheritors to receive. We picture the expressions on the faces. Some are tearful. Some are dry-eyed and intense.

As the narration progresses, the expressions change. One thing for sure: any scowls among them mean we’re in for some rough scenes ahead. Some mayhem; maybe even murder. And it’s all about m-o-n-e-y.

The theme of today’s Scriptures is all about the foolishness of making much ado about financial wealth. In a culture like our own, complete with the “haves” and the “have nots,” we know that for many people money matters are the only “matters” that matter! Therefore, it’s almost “un-American” to agree with Christ’s perspective, which He makes clear in the parable He tells us today.

So, the cultural question becomes “Who is right?” Do we rush to extremes to justify our own outlook, whatever that may be? Proffer such lame excuse as “I work hard for my money and I can keep it all if I want to,” permitting one to hold back from donating any of it? Or “the Church is always asking for money and that’s not right for any religious group”? This, even when the need the Church is trying to meet, is to help fellow human beings in dire straits?

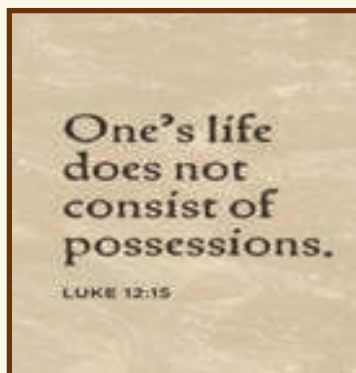

In other words, we are adept at finding reasons to keep a tight grip on our wallets and purses. Sometimes our observations are on target when truths emerge about funds deliberately mishandled by so-called charitable organizations like Churches. But it all comes down to the cold fact that we can’t take it with us. As the late Billy Graham put it, “You never see an armored car behind a hearse.”

Another less obvious but certifiable fact: we all have a scheduled appointment with our Maker that we cannot cancel or avoid. He is the one who preached the parable we hear today, and He will be running the meeting.

One of God’s many characteristics is that of generosity. He made us all from nothing and gives us everything our eyes can see, and our brains imagine. So, there’s no doubt about His generosity. What about yours and mine? Here’s a helpful little ditty that can make you smile and decide:

“Do your givin’
While you’re livin’;
Then you’re knowin’
Where it’s goin.’”

God love you and give you His generous Heart.

We thank all of you who have supported us in this endeavor! May God continue to bless you and your families.

Thank you again for your generosity and support of the South Jersey Catholic Ministry Appeal,
Fr. Steven Bertonazzi, Pastor

God Centered Stewards

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." LUKE 12:15 The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our "invisible" gifts like love, mercy, and forgiveness. True joy comes from "emptying" ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living Stewardship in a grateful and generous lifestyle. Become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

RAIN DOWN

Jaime Cortez

Text: Based on Psalm 33. Text and music © 1991, Jaime Cortez. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C

FIRST READING:

Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23

Vanity of vanities, says Qoheleth, vanity of vanities! All things are vanity!

Here is one who has labored with wisdom and knowledge and skill, and yet to another who has not labored over it, he must leave property. This also is vanity and a great misfortune. For what profit comes to man from all the toil and anxiety of heart with which he has labored under the sun? All his days sorrow and grief are his occupation; even at night his mind is not at rest. This also is vanity.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. Psalm 90:3 -6, 12-14, 17

SECOND READING:

Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Brothers and sisters: If you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Put to death, then, the parts of you that are earthly: immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and the greed that is idolatry. Stop lying to one another, since you have taken off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed, for knowledge, in the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all and in all.

GOSPEL:

Luke 12:13-21

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." He replied to him, "Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?" Then he said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Then he told them a parable. "There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, 'What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest?' And he said, 'This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, 'Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!'" But God said to him, "You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God."

Readings are from the USCCB Daily Bible Readings.

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
