Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's reflection let us look at the relationship between Elisha in the first reading and Jesus in the Gospel. Elisha was the successor of the prophet Elijah. You might not be familiar with Elisha, but he was the most powerful of the Old Testament prophets, even greater than Elijah. It is said that before the Lord brought Elijah into Heaven on a fiery chariot, Elisha asked the Lord to increase his spirit to be twice as powerful as Elijah; strange sounding, I am sure. Elisha was known as the greatest miracle worker in the Old Testament. It was said he was so holy that when he died and was put into the grave, his body touched another corpse and that corpse came back to life. You cannot make this stuff up. It's a very strange story.

The first reading is the conclusion of a very interesting story of the healing of Naaman. Naaman was a commander in the Syrian army, a Gentile, and he also suffered from leprosy. Naaman found out from a captured Israeli girl that the God of Israel could perform great miracles. So, he sent word to the Israeli King and the King's response was that only God could heal leprosy. When Elisha hears about the man, he informs Naaman to go to the Jordan River and wash in it seven times and he will be healed. Can you believe Naaman had a problem with this directive, because he thought he knew of nicer rivers in his own country? But he did it anyway and was healed. And because of this healing, he converted to believing in the God of Israel.

Now look at the relationship; it was said that before the Messiah returned, Elijah would return. Elisha was the successor of Elijah. Jesus referred to John the Baptist as the new Elijah. And Jesus was the successor of John the Baptist, Jesus was like the new Elisha. In the first reading, we have with Elisha the healing of a leper and the conversion of one Gentile. Jesus is God, obviously much more powerful than Elisha and what did He do? He cured ten lepers! Jesus is at least ten times more powerful! For the miracle Elisha performed, Naaman had to go to the Jordan river and wash seven times. With Jesus, the lepers just had to trust Him, then turn, and go show themselves to the priests of the Temple.

Think about what is said in the Old Testament story. In the story, the Israeli King declares leprosy can only be cured by God himself. In this story we get a clue that Jesus is really divine in nature. Note also the man Jesus healed was also a Samaritan, a conversion to the God of Israel just like Naaman. What do we walk away with from these readings? In the Gospel ten people had an encounter with Jesus. These ten people were united together not by race or nationality but by their disease. Many people probably passed them every day and walked around them to avoid them as best they could. But the Gospel says that Jesus saw them. He saw them in their pain. It seems Jesus is very good at seeing people in their pain. He sees them and He heals them. Why is this? Because Jesus is the hope of the world!

We have all been like lepers; some of us still are separated from God and the community by sin. But Jesus sees us, He sees us in our pain. Make no mistake, sin always seems to lead to some kind of pain. But Jesus sees each of us and out of pity for us, He heals us. But our response so many times is just like the nine lepers who never came back to give thanks to Jesus for being healed. Today at this Mass, think about all the times we let Jesus down by not returning to give thanks. We may thank Him quickly in passing, but we do not fully understand the great blessings Jesus has given us, like His forgiveness. Think of the unbelievable things Jesus did for you. I know he did amazing things for you because he does them for me all the time. But we usually just move on in our business. Jesus sees us and heals us, yet so often we don't even notice. Think about this: when you are grateful, you cannot sin; it is impossible. And think about when thankfulness fills our hearts for the greatness of God, then anger, lust, and revenge have no place in our hearts. Then the amazement of what Jesus did for us is all that remains.

INCREASED OFFERTORY APPEAL

St. Teresa of Calcutta Parish is embarking on an important effort to strengthen weekly offertory. We invite you to take a moment to reflect on the many ways the Lord has blessed your family and our parish community—and how we say “thank you” through our continued support.

To keep our parish vibrant and our ministries thriving, we are asking every household to prayerfully consider a small, meaningful increase in their weekly offertory gift. Beginning this weekend and continuing over the next two weekends, we'll be inviting you to participate in our increased Offertory Appeal.

With your support, St. Teresa of Calcutta Parish will be able to meet it's financial obligations and continue to carry out our mission.

This weekend, we'll discuss why this increase is needed, why now is the right time, and what a difference it will make for our parish's future. Next weekend, we'll provide helpful guidelines for giving and answer some common questions about the appeal. Then, on Commitment Weekend, which takes place the weekend of Oct 25 & 26, each parish family will be invited to make their commitment during Mass.

Just as those who came before us built this church and created the foundation we now enjoy, it is our responsibility to invest in the future of our parish for generations to come.

Grateful Stewards

"Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?"
LUKE 17:18

Most of us live relatively "easy" lives. We have food, shelter, clothing, and money. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you and discern how He is calling you to live Stewardship by sharing your gifts.

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C

FIRST READING:

2 Kings 5:14-17

Naaman went down and plunged into the Jordan seven times at the word of Elisha, the man of God. His flesh became again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean of his leprosy. Naaman returned with his whole retinue to the man of God. On his arrival he stood before Elisha and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel. Please accept a gift from your servant."

Elisha replied, "As the LORD lives whom I serve, I will not take it;" and despite Naaman's urging, he still refused. Naaman said: "If you will not accept, please let me, your servant, have two mule-loads of earth, for I will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any other god except to the LORD."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power. Psalm 98:1-4

SECOND READING:

2 Timothy 2:8-13

Beloved: Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David: such is my gospel, for which I am suffering, even to the point of chains, like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore, I bear with everything for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, together with eternal glory. This saying is trustworthy: If we have died with him we shall also live with him; if we persevere we shall also reign with him. But if we deny him he will deny us. If we are unfaithful he remains faithful, for he cannot deny himself.

GOSPEL:

Luke 17:11-19

As Jesus continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee. As he was entering a village, ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!" And when he saw them, he said, "Go show yourselves to the priests." As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan. Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven. At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

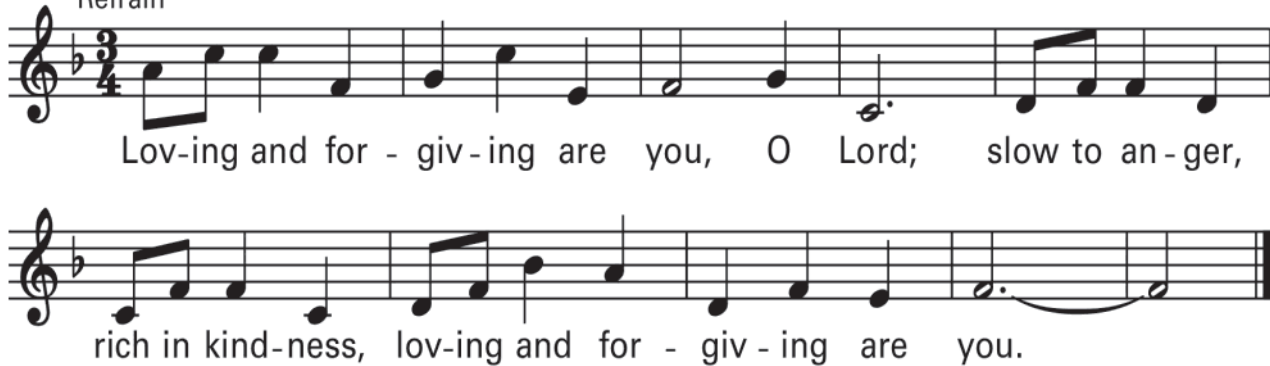

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
