Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Many times, we have instances where we could rightly say that Our Lord “pulls no punches.” The term comes from the sport of boxing and refers to the boxer’s decision not to hit his opponent as hard as he very well could. Applied to a speaker, it means that he or she talks very directly, even if their words might upset a listener or two.

This weekend’s Gospel section from Dr. Luke is a good example of this. However, many Pharisees present when He told the story would naturally be very upset. Jesus paints the picture of a proud braggart praying “with himself” instead of God. The conceited man not only lines up for God all his supposed “good deeds and practices” but also makes clear to God his superiority over the tax collector in the back of the room.

No matter how much or how little we know about prayer, that man up front disgusts us, or “turns us off” if we have any appreciation of humility. There is something quite out of place when a person approaches God with a list of all their good works, implying that they are therefore worthy of special treatment. It is very much like the loud-mouthed plane passenger demanding extra attention just because he/she has a first-class plane ticket. The ticket doesn’t confer royalty of any kind on a rude rider.

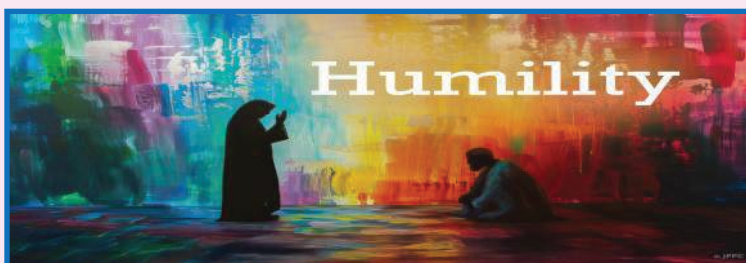

The beauty of the prayer of that tax collector “standing far off” is twofold. All done with an economy of words that is itself exemplary, a quality obviously favored by Jesus over wordiness.

First, his prayer acknowledges the chief attribute of God for which we should all be grateful, and that is His mercy. Who of us would be in any position of comfort with our Maker were He not so? Our failures to return His love, our very sins, would, without His mercy, doom us to hellfire.

Secondly, there is the man’s striking humility. How we can all benefit by having large doses of that virtue present in us when we go to pray. No wonder our humble Savior told His audience that the tax collector went home “justified.”

On that matter of brevity in prayer, here is a thought from no less than Thomas Jefferson, our third president, who wrote our Declaration of Independence: “The most valuable of all talents is that of never using two words when one will do.”

God love you and be humble in His sight.

INCREASED OFFERTORY APPEAL

This weekend is Commitment Weekend — the high point of St. Teresa of Calcutta Parish's Increased Offertory Appeal. Over the past two weeks, we've shared the reasons for this appeal and our hope to increase our ordinary income so that we can help us meet our financial obligations and continue to carry out the Parish Mission Statement.

During Mass this weekend, ushers will distribute pencils and a special envelope containing a commitment card. We are asking each household to prayerfully consider a small, sacrificial increase in their weekly giving.

Your response — even a modest one — makes a real difference. If every family responds, we will succeed together. On the card, you'll also find the option to request offertory envelopes or to receive information about our electronic giving program. You may also contact the parish office directly to request this information.

We are deeply grateful for the positive response we've already received. We are confident that our faith-filled community will respond generously to this appeal and help secure the future of St. Teresa of Calcutta Parish for generations to come.

Let us continue to pray for the success of this effort — and for one another — as we work together to strengthen our parish mission.

Parish Giving offers secure Flexible Online Giving for our parishioners who would like to make their donations online using a credit card or bank transfer. You never have to bring cash or checks to church. Online Giving helps the church save money and plan the budget.

SENIOR'S MINISTRY

This is a Parish outreach program to assist people who are shut-in either at home or in a nursing home. Our Mission is to assist the parish's senior citizens who need companionship and support. We contact family members of shut-ins, visit nursing homes and private residences to see where we can be of assistance. Contact Ed Charlton by text 215-284-1365 or echarlto53@gmail.com.

Humble Stewardship

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." LUKE 18:14

Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Pride is the opposite of humility. Remember Stewardship. All that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God's incredible generosity and be grateful for all we have been given. Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C

FIRST READING:

Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

The LORD is a God of justice, who knows no favorites. Though not unduly partial toward the weak, yet he fears the cry of the oppressed. The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint. The one who serves God willingly is heard; his petition reaches the heavens. The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest till it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds, judges justly and affirms the right, and the Lord will not delay.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

Psalm 34:2-3, 17-19, 23

SECOND READING:

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

Beloved: I am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance. At my first defense no one appeared on my behalf, but everyone deserted me. May it not be held against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed and all the Gentiles might hear it. And I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly kingdom.

GOSPEL:

Luke 18:9-14

Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else. "Two people went up to the temple area to pray; one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector. The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself, 'O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity -- greedy, dishonest, adulterous -- or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.' But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
