PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are the welcoming community of Saint Teresa of Calcutta living our faith by endeavoring to follow her example to see, share and be the light of Christ's love and compassion.

PARISH INFORMATION: November 16, 2025

Welcome to Saint Teresa of Calcutta Parish!

We are pleased to have you share in this celebration of the Eucharist. If you do not have a parish home, we invite you to become part of our parish family and become fully involved in our life of prayer, education, service and community.

Registration: We invite all parishioners to register with the Parish. Registration helps us to serve you when issuing letters in connection with sponsorship of Baptism, Confirmation or Matrimony, and for letters of reference. Kindly notify the office if your address changes.

Anointing of the Sick: In case of serious illness or advanced age please call the parish office. For hospital cases, contact the hospital Chaplain.

Pastoral Care: Please call the parish office to have Communion brought to an ill or homebound family member.

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

The Sisyphus legend is a Greek myth about a cunning king condemned to an eternal punishment: endlessly pushing a boulder up a hill, only for it to roll back down every time he nears the top. Sisyphus was punished for betraying the god Zeus by revealing the whereabouts of Zeus' kidnapped daughter, and for cheating death twice, most notably by chaining Thanatos (Death). The term "Sisyphean task" now describes any repetitive, frustrating, or impossible labor. Or any job that demands perseverance to accomplish.

Living a true Christian life can sometimes seem like a "Sisyphean task" does it not? We make good progress for a while. We are on good terms with Christ. Our attitude is positive, and life is good. Then, suddenly, we fall back and lose ground. All that takes is a thought, word, or action contrary to what Christ expects of us. One "drink too many" at a party. One lie added to the story to make it more impressive. One impure thought not dismissed because we like the picture. The confessional beckons but we let it pass. Maybe we're just too lazy or ashamed to make an appointment with the priest to be reconciled with the Lord we have offended.

This is exactly where the difference comes in between the punishment given to King Sisyphus and the opportunity given us by Christ our King.

You see, we Christians believe ourselves to have a baptismal call to think, believe and behave in a certain way. It is not a punishment, but instead, a way to prove our love for someone who has first loved us. God Himself. He is who has created us out of nothing, believing that His Kingdom would be incomplete without us in it. One who also promises a life of unending happiness after this brief testing time here on earth.

The arrogant King Sisyphus chose to go his own way, despite what he knew to be right. He set up his fate without knowing what it would entail. He is part of a myth meant to teach. We humble Christian believers instead choose to go Christ's way, and despite our weakness in choosing occasional detours, lovingly teach it to each new generation. Our perseverance profits us from a peace this world cannot bring and lets us believe in ourselves as well.

"Believe you can and you're halfway there." -Theodore Roosevelt

AN ADVENT EVENT FOR EVERYONE

In early Advent, we gather as a parish family to prepare for Christmas in a very special way. Everyone has a chance to place their special intentions on a slip of paper, then inside an ornament, and that ornament on a tree.

Amid reflection and prayer, there is music, caroling and hot chocolate. In lighting this Christmas tree, we anticipate the Prince of Peace by praying for each other's special intentions as well as our own. Best of all, that's just the start of caring for each other's spiritual hopes and aspirations right through Advent until Christmas Day – and beyond.

Please Join Us for EITHER OR BOTH Special Intention Christmas Tree Lightings, Spread the Word, and Invite Anyone You Like.

Your Assistance, Please!

Did you know that your parish Men's Club has been "adopting" parish (and previously Good Shepherd School) families to help make the Christmas season bright? If you answered "No", then we have done our job in keeping this initiative private out of respect for the families we help. To achieve this, only a select very few members who run the Adopt-A-Family project will ever know which families we are assisting. But that means we need your help to be effective. We mention this not to seek plaudits, but families. In a time when the cost of everyday items has risen as family budgets get tighter, perhaps you know a family heading into a difficult holiday season. We would love to help, and no less so if that family is yours.

In the past, we have assisted with gifts for the children, a night out for the family, and some gift cards for food shopping. Please tell any officer or member of the Men's Club that you know of such a family, and we'll handle it discreetly from there. One way to reach out is by email: stteresamensclub@yahoo.com.

Help us help someone have less worry this Christmas season!

Men's Club Corner

The Men's Club will reconvene to discuss another year of service to our parish and greater community at our next meeting on Monday, December 15 at 8pm at McLaughlin Hall. All parish men 21 years or over in age are welcome to join us.

We are always open for new members.

Please reach out to stteresamensclub@yahoo.com or Josh Wiener at 609-502-3539 with any questions.

STEWARDS IMITATE

"...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us." 2 Thessalonians 3:9

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don't go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and others desire this in their own life. Know that the Stewardship way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.

Don't Miss the Chosen's Grand Finale of Season 5!

The acclaimed series, The Chosen, prompts great discussions of our Faith. ALL are welcome to either of two sessions presenting episode 8 of season 5: Tuesday, November 18th at 9:30 AM or Wednesday, November 19th at 7:00 PM, both in McLaughlin Hall.

IMPORTANT: There is NO requirement to have participated in all, or any, of the prior four seasons. Each episode stands on its own. For information, contact Pete Dunn at PeteDunn@financialguide.com, (856) 397-1139, or any Faith In Action member.

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

FIRST READING:

Malachi 3:19-20a

Lo, the day is coming, blazing like an oven, when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble, and the day that is coming will set them on fire, leaving them neither root nor branch, says the LORD of hosts. But for you who fear my name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.

Psalm 98:5-6, 7-8, 9

SECOND READING:

2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Brothers and sisters: You know how one must imitate us. For we did not act in a disorderly way among you, nor did we eat food received free from anyone. On the contrary, in toil and drudgery, night and day we worked, so as not to burden any of you. Not that we do not have the right. Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us. In fact, when we were with you, we instructed you that if anyone was unwilling to work, neither should that one eat. We hear that some are conducting themselves among you in a disorderly way, by not keeping busy but minding the business of others. Such people we instruct and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ to work quietly and to eat their own food.

GOSPEL:

Luke 21:5-19

While some people were speaking about how the temple was adorned with costly stones and votive offerings, Jesus said, "All that you see here-- the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down."

Then they asked him, "Teacher, when will this happen? And what sign will there be when all these things are about to happen?" He answered, "See that you not be deceived, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and 'The time has come.' Do not follow them! When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for such things must happen first, but it will not immediately be the end." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs will come from the sky.

"Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons, and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name. It will lead to your living testimony. Remember, you are not to prepare your defense beforehand, for I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute. You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives."

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass for Use in the Dioceses of the United States of America, second typical edition © 2001, 1998, 1997, 1986, 1970 Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, Inc., Washington, DC. Used with permission. All rights reserved.

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Saint Cecilia

"Men call me Cecilia, but my most beautiful name is that of Christian."
- Saint Cecilia

November 22nd is the Feast day of Saint Cecilia.

Saint Cecilia, a Roman virgin martyr, is venerated as the patron of music and musicians. She is often portrayed playing the organ in art, symbolizing the sacred role of music in worship.

Saint Cecilia pray for us.
