OUR LORD SAID TO ST. FAUSTINA:

The graces of My mercy are drawn by means of one vessel only, and that is trust. The more a soul trusts, the more it will receive. Souls that trust boundlessly are a great comfort to Me, because I pour all the treasures of My graces into them. I rejoice that they ask for much, because it is My desire to give much, very much (Diary, 1578). www.thedivinemercy.org/celebrate/how/no-eucharist

Reflection For Sunday of Divine Mercy, the Second Sunday of Easter

Reflection by Deacon Leo Howitz

Today's reflection is on the Second Sunday of Easter also called Divine Mercy Sunday. Last week was Easter Sunday, the beginning of the Easter Season. Just like we have a Christmas season we have the same thing for Easter. The Easter season will last for seven weeks.

With the Easter Season we get many of the traditions the Church has today. This is the beginning of the early Church. It all starts with Jesus coming through a locked door where the ten apostles were hiding. Only ten apostles were there as Judas went off and killed himself and Thomas was not in the room at the time. This event took place on Easter Sunday.

What did Jesus do? First, He greeted them, 'peace be with you' and why is this important? Because a few days before it was Holy Thursday and Jesus was showing His great love for them. He stressed to them the importance of serving rather than being served by the washing of their feet. He showed them, in the breaking of the bread and the drinking of the cup, the New and Holy Covenant, the first Mass. Jesus had only hours left to live, and He knew it; now was the time to stress the most important things He wanted the disciples to know about Him.

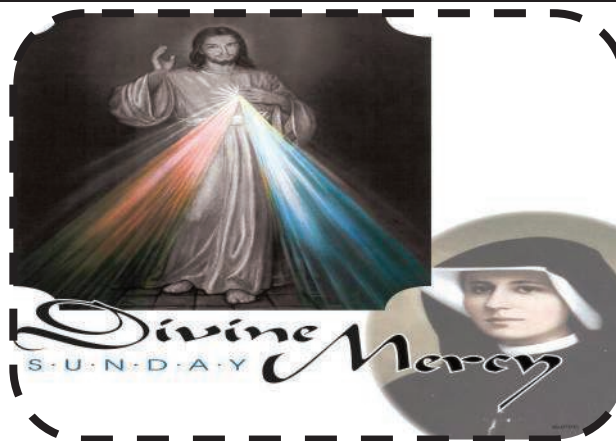

Now, why was this friendly greeting so important? Because at the one moment they should have all stood by Jesus, they let Him down, they abandoned them completely. But Jesus was not vengeful, He forgave Him, no questions asked, He understood. He forgave them and showed them how to be merciful.

Next Jesus breathed on them and told them, 'As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' This has a deep significance. Can you think of when this happened before? In John's Gospel, it starts, 'In the beginning there was the Word,' the same beginning as the book of Genesis. Now think of the story of Adam, God breathed life into him, and he came into being.

With this breathing on the disciples, they like Adam are now a new creation, Jesus has commissioned them to go out and spread the word, the good news. From right here they stopped being disciples and are now apostles. Think of the definition of the word apostle: one who is sent forth. This is where we begin as the Holy Catholic Church! And this Church would have to figure out many things about Jesus.

Reflect on the mysteries that were revealed through the Holy Spirit during these early days of the Church. Jesus and the crucifixion: what was the real significance? How is Jesus' present in the Eucharist? The person of Jesus: was He fully human, fully divine? Who was Jesus in regard to the Holy Trinity? How did all this tie back to Jewish scripture? So many questions, so many answers revealed by the Holy Spirit during this time. And the Holy Spirit is just as alive today answering many more questions that remain.

Just as the Spirit opened the hearts and minds of the disciples when Jesus breathed on them and commissioned them to go out. By our baptisms, we are also blessed by the Holy Spirit to go out and become apostles sharing the wonderful knowledge that Jesus lives and is present in the Eucharist. At the very end of today's Gospel we come to believe in Jesus and realize just like Thomas did that Jesus is our Lord and our God. But unlike Thomas, we are blessed because we have come to believe but have not physically seen the risen Jesus.

PARISH INFORMATION

Stewards Welcome

"Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" JOHN 20:19

Are you a good steward by making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, like a new neighbor, a new work colleague or a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. We are made for relationships – with God and each other. When you see yourself as a beloved son or daughter of God, you tend to see others the same way, too – just as God, Our Father, sees us.

Welcome, Colin, into Full Communion!

At the Easter Vigil, Colin received the Sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist. He chose Saint Augustine as his confirmation name.

Faith as a Lifelong Journey

Inspired by Augustine's journey of conversion, Colin recognizes that faith is a lifelong process of growth and commitment to God. Through the support of his sponsor, Terry Moody, and our OCIA community, Colin has deepened his faith and answered the call to follow Christ more fully.

Congratulations, Colin!

The 2nd Sunday of Easter—Sunday of Divine Mercy

FIRST READING:

Acts 2:42-47

They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need. Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes. They ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Give thanks to the LORD for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Psalms 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24

SECOND READING:

1 Peter 1:3-9

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you who by the power of God are safeguarded through faith, to a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the final time. In this you rejoice, although now for a little while you may have to suffer through various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold that is perishable even though tested by fire, may prove to be for praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Although you have not seen him you love him; even though you do not see him now yet believe in him, you rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, as you attain the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

GOSPEL:

John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now, Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.
