33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Here's a question: "Have you noticed how investment brokers ride the airwaves with abandon these days with cautions for the unwise to 'buy gold or silver now, especially for those wanting a crash-proof retirement?'" I'm sure you have, especially if you follow the newscasts. Granted, the world right now is replete with chaos and uncertainty. We have daily reports of enduring wars and religious persecution. Cameras record it all, and commentators ply their trade.

So a parable of Our Lord's teaching about the best way to handle investments with wise stewardship fits right in. But the teaching is not just about earthly finances. Nor is the spiritual lesson the Master teaches limited to any one time or season.

This Parable of the Talents is a story for mid-November, with an eye not only to the ending of the calendar year, but also to that of the Church year. We can extend its lesson to include the context of the ending of the world.

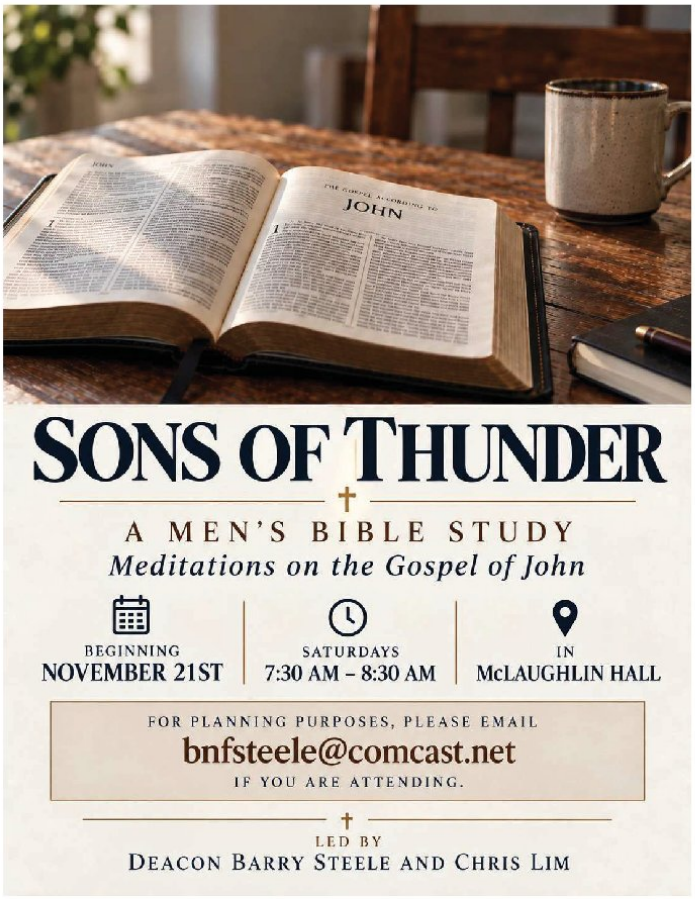

Just as financial wisdom lies in careful planning and thorough consultation with knowledgeable experts, so spiritual wisdom comes from consultation with Christ and the saints.

Note how the nervous servant in the story may have been envious of the servants who were given more money. That made him wary and distrustful of his master. He became less a helper. He is not anything like the good wife who is praised in our First Reading from Proverbs.

So, if we learn one lesson today, it is to be wise in using the particular gift or talent God has given us. That precludes any undue nervousness about the Last Day.

In the 1973 movie "Papillon," the main character was a criminal who was imprisoned for life for crimes against the French state. The movie portrayed the dreams he had while in prison. In one dream, he stood before a tribunal for a crime. He pleaded with the judge that he was not guilty of the crime for which he was being tried. The judge replied that he was not being tried for that crime, but for a crime that is the most heinous crime of the human race. Papillon asked what crime it was. The judge replied, "The crime of a wasted life." Papillon wept, "Guilty, guilty." The judge pronounced the sentence of death.

God love you and give you His peace.

PARISH INFORMATION

Faithful Stewardship

Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you have been faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. - MATTHEW 25:21

God calls us through sterwardship to nurture and develop the gifts He has given us and then generously return a portion with increase. He doesn't want us to waste or hoard the gifts He has given us. He expects us to grow our gifts, to use them wisely, and to be generous with them. Unfortunately, many of us are not generous in proportion to all that God has given us. God asks us to be generous with all our gifts, especially the one that means the most to you.

Understanding Diabetes and Reducing Your Risk

Diabetes is a chronic disease that occurs when blood glucose levels are too high. It affects approximately 38 million Americans, including adults and children, and can lead to serious complications involving the heart, kidneys and eyes, as well as an increased risk of heart disease and stroke.

If diabetes is left untreated, it can impact many different systems in the body. While diabetes is complicated and can be concerning, the good news is that it can be preventable, and is manageable with proper care and healthy lifestyle choices.

Tips for Diabetes Prevention and Management

1. Know your risk factors. These include family history, age, being overweight, physical inactivity and prediabetes.
2. Monitor your health. Know your blood glucose, blood pressure and cholesterol levels.
3. Build healthy habits. Eat nutritious meals, stay physically active, get enough sleep, avoid smoking, limit alcohol and manage stress. You don't have to do it all at once.
4. Take medications as prescribed by your healthcare provider to help manage diabetes and other health risks.
5. Maintain a healthy weight to help lower your risk of Type 2 diabetes.
6. Partner with your healthcare team for regular checkups, guidance and support.

VITALity Catholic Healthcare Services is here to walk alongside individuals and families with compassionate care, resources and advocacy.

Men's Club Adopting a Family for Christmas

Your Assistance, Please

Did you know that your parish Men's Club has been "adopting" parish (and previously Good Shepherd School) families to help make the Christmas season bright? If you answered "No", then we have done our job in keeping this initiative private out of respect for the families we help. To achieve this, only a select very few members who run the Adopt-A-Family project will ever know which families we are assisting. But that means we need your help to be effective. We mention this not to seek plaudits, but families. In a time when the cost of everyday items has risen as family budgets get tighter, perhaps you know a family heading into a difficult holiday season. We would love to help, and no less so if that family is yours. In the past, we have assisted with gifts for the children, a night out for the family, and some gift cards for food shopping.

Please tell any officer or member of the Men's Club that you know of such a family, and we'll handle it discreetly from there. One way to reach out is an email to stteresamensclub@yahoo.com. Help us help someone have one less worry this Christmas season.

An Advent Event For Everyone

In early Advent, we gather as a parish family to prepare for Christmas in a very special way. Everyone places their special intentions on a slip of paper, then inside an ornament, and that ornament goes on a tree. Amid reflection and prayer, there is music by choir, caroling, and hot chocolate. In lighting this Christmas tree, we anticipate the Prince of Peace by praying for each other's special intentions as well as our own.

Best of all, that's just the start of caring for each other's hopes and aspirations right through Advent until Christmas Day – and beyond. Don't worry about weather; all but the tree lightings and the hot chocolate is inside church. Please Join Us for Either or Both Special Intention Christmas Tree Lightings. Spread the Word, and Invite Anyone You Like.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING:

Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls. Her husband, entrusting his heart to her, has an unfailing prize. She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life. She obtains wool and flax and works with loving hands. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her fingers ply the spindle. She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy. Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Give her a reward for her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Psalm 128:1-2, 3, 4-5

SECOND READING:

1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night. When people are saying, "Peace and security, " then sudden disaster comes upon them, like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief. For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.

GOSPEL:

Matthew 25:14-30

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one-- to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money. "After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.' His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'"

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

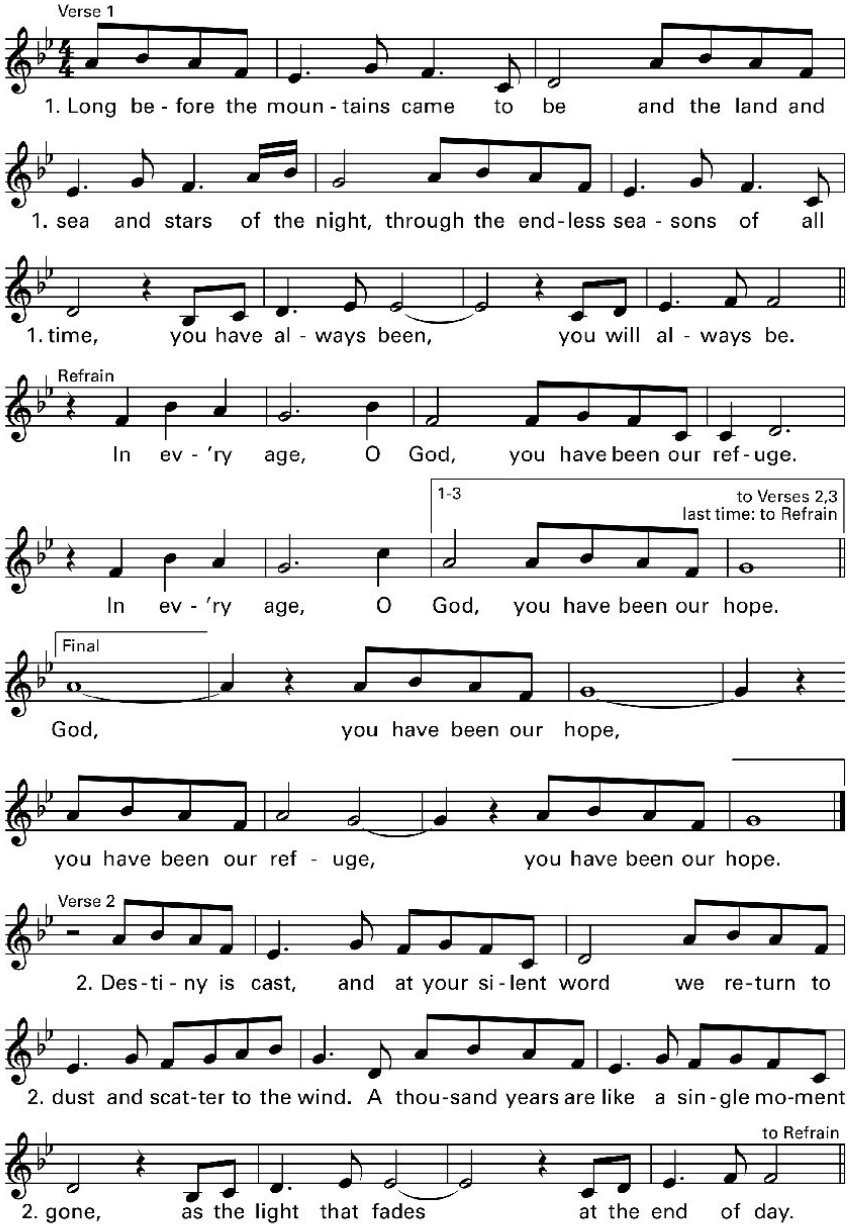

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
