November 22, 2026 – Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

The visit of King Charles of England to our country was a salute to the long-standing alliance between our two lands. His visit was marked with a great deal of pomp. His eloquent speech to Congress was sprinkled with historical references and some gentle humor. I don't believe anything of the king's visit tarnished our 250th anniversary as a nation. But it did bring into sharp focus the fact that our nation began as a revolution against royalty, that is, against the ancestors of King Charles.

Human kings and queens throughout history often turned out to be crowned scoundrels with the perennial bad habit of intolerance and cruelty toward their subjects. The modern fascination many of us have with royalty has its place, for sure. But when it comes to conferring the title of "King" on Christ Jesus, Our Lord, we have to be careful about our definitions.

We are hardly talking about the likes of human kings because in this case we are talking about God. Note the contrast as presented by Matthew's Gospel.

Here is a king whose hallmark is service. Not to and for an elite marked by wealth. His service was chiefly to the poor and the afflicted. That kind of service, as practiced by us — His "subjects," or better, His followers — will form the basis of His judgment of us when that time comes.

It is helpful that we have models of this kind of loving service across the spectrum of creeds. Our own St. Francis of Assisi, who left a wealthy family and chose a life of poverty, spent his days caring for the poor and sick. Saint Teresa of Calcutta, who worked with the poor in India, is another prime example among the vast host of Church saints.

To them we can add William Booth, the founder of the Salvation Army, who worked tirelessly to help the poor and disadvantaged in Victorian England. Another is Eric Liddell, the subject of the movie "Chariots of Fire," who won an Olympic gold medal in 1924 but who then returned to China in 1925 to work as a teacher and missionary. The list is long. But we can make it longer, each in our own personal way.

Dwight Lyman Moody, a 19th-century American evangelist and publisher, once aptly observed, "We may easily be too big for God to use, but never too small."

God love you and give you His peace.

Stewardship Generosity

...whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me. - MATTHEW 25:40

Most of us are generous when it's convenient for us. We are generous when we have the time or the money. But, real sterwardship generosity is the opposite of that. It means giving of one's time, money, compassion, forgiveness or mercy when it's not convenient to us, when it's not on our schedule, but on the other person's timeline.

An Advent Event For Everyone

In early Advent, we gather as a parish family to prepare for Christmas in a very special way. Everyone places their special intentions on a slip of paper, then inside an ornament, and that ornament goes on a tree. Amid reflection and prayer, there is music by choir, caroling, and hot chocolate. In lighting this Christmas tree, we anticipate the Prince of Peace by praying for each other's special intentions as well as our own. Best of all, that's just the start of caring for each other's hopes and aspirations right through Advent until Christmas Day – and beyond. Don't worry about weather; all but the tree lightings and the hot chocolate is inside church. Please Join Us for Either or Both Special Intention Christmas Tree Lightings. Spread the Word, and Invite Anyone You Like.

THE SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

FIRST READING:

Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17

Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will look after and tend my sheep. As a shepherd tends his flock when he finds himself among his scattered sheep, so will I tend my sheep. I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. I myself will pasture my sheep; I myself will give them rest, says the Lord GOD. The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy, shepherding them rightly. As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Psalm 23:1-2, 2-3, 5-6

SECOND READING:

1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28

Brothers and sisters: Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man. For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ the firstfruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ; then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to his God and Father, when he has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. When everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all.

GOSPEL:

Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.' Then the righteous will answer him and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?' And the king will say to them in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.' Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, a stranger and you gave me no welcome, naked and you gave me no clothing, ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.' Then they will answer and say, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and not minister to your needs?' He will answer them, 'Amen, I say to you, what you did not do for one of these least ones, you did not do for me.' And these will go off to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life."

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass for Use in the Dioceses of the United States of America, second typical edition © 2001, 1998, 1997, 1986, 1970 Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, Inc., Washington, DC. Used with permission. All rights reserved.

CREED: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven.

At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man", all bow.

And by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

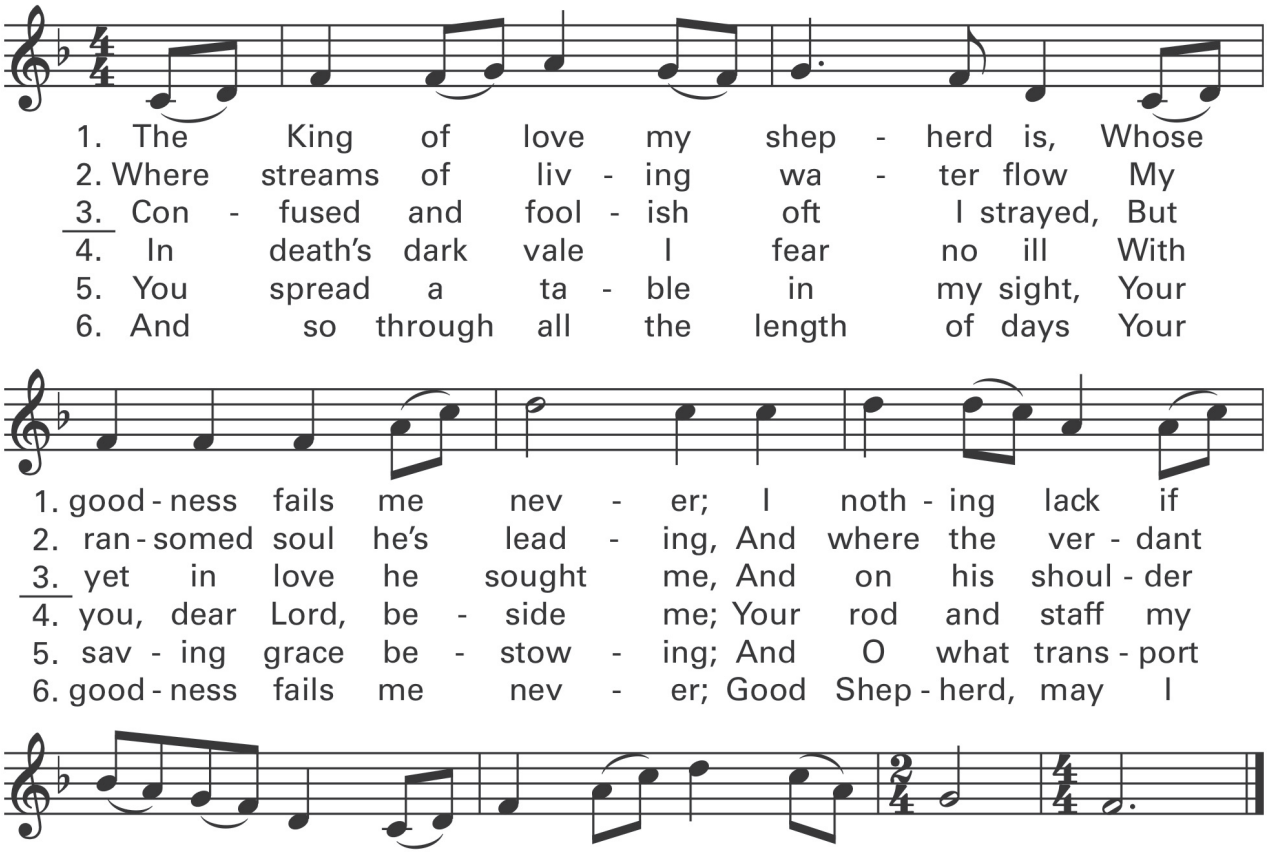

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
